Executive Summary

The Civil and Small Claims Advisory Committee proposes the revision of all 26 forms in the private postsecondary school violence form set to implement Assembly Bill 2096 (Stats. 2024, ch. 947), which goes into effect on January 1, 2026, and to make other necessary changes to accurately reflect current law. The forms included with this report also contain revisions recommended to implement Senate Bill 899 (Stats. 2024, ch. 544), as well as four forms the committee recommends adopting to implement that law. Those recommendations are explained in a separate proposal entitled Protective Orders: Civil Restraining Order Forms to Implement Senate Bill 899, which also includes new and revised forms for other categories of protective orders.

Recommendation

The Civil and Small Claims Advisory Committee recommends that the Judicial Council, effective January 1, 2026:

- 1. Adopt the following forms to implement SB 899:
 - Prohibited Items Finding and Orders (form SV-820);
 - Noncompliance With Firearms, Firearm Parts, and Ammunition Order (form SV-830);
 - Notice of Compliance Hearing for Firearms, Firearm Parts, and Ammunition (form SV-840); and
 - Permission to Have Firearm or Ammunition for Work (form SV-850).
- 2. Revise the following forms to implement AB 2096 or SB 899, or both:
 - Petition for Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Orders (form SV-100);
 - How Do I Get an Order to Prohibit Postsecondary School Violence? (form SV-100-INFO);
 - Notice of Court Hearing (form SV-109);
 - Temporary Restraining Order (form SV-110);
 - Request to Continue Court Hearing (form SV-115);
 - How to Ask for a New Hearing Date (form SV-115-INFO);
 - Order on Request to Continue Hearing (form SV-116);
 - Response to Petition for Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Orders (form SV-120);
 - How Can I Respond to a Petition for Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Orders (form SV-120-INFO);
 - Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Order After Hearing (form SV-130);
 - Proof of Personal Service (form SV-200);
 - What Is "Proof of Personal Service"? (form SV-200-INFO);
 - Proof of Service of Response by Mail (form SV-250);
 - Proof of Service of Order After Hearing by Mail (form SV-260);
 - Request to Modify/Terminate Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Order (form SV-600);
 - Notice of Hearing on Request to Modify/Terminate Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Order (form SV-610);
 - Response to Request to Modify/Terminate Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Order (form SV-620);
 - Order on Request to Modify/Terminate Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Order (form SV-630);
 - Request to Renew Restraining Order (form SV-700);
 - Notice of Hearing to Renew Restraining Order (form SV-710);
 - Request to Reschedule Hearing to Renew Restraining Order (form SV-715);
 - Order to Reschedule Hearing to Renew Restraining Order (form SV-716);

- Response to Request to Renew Restraining Order (form SV-720);
- Order Renewing Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Order (form SV-730);
- Receipt for Firearms, Firearm Parts, and Ammunition (form SV-800); and
- How Do I Turn In, Sell, or Store My Firearms, Firearm Parts, and Ammunition? (form SV-800-INFO).

The proposed new and revised forms are included at pages 9–87.

Relevant Previous Council Action

Under Code of Civil Procedure section 527.85(v), the Judicial Council must provide forms and instructions for use in postsecondary school violence restraining order matters. The council first adopted and approved protective order forms for use in preventing private postsecondary school violence on October 29, 2010. The council last approved substantive changes to these forms in 2024 to implement a new law prohibiting the possession of body armor by those who are prohibited from possessing firearms.

Analysis/Rationale

The recommendations in this report implement changes in law made by AB 2096 (see Link A) and SB 899 (see Link B). The recommendations to implement SB 899 are described in a separate proposal entitled Protective Orders: Civil Restraining Order Forms to Implement Senate Bill 899 The four forms recommended for adoption (forms SV-820, SV-830, SV-840, and SV-850) all relate to SB 899.

To implement AB 2096, the committee recommends revising the postsecondary school violence forms to (1) remove the word "private" as a modifier across all 26 of these forms, (2) include additional criteria establishing the basis of a protective order, (3) add a prohibition against stalking to the list of personal conduct orders, (4) revise the explanation of the circumstances meriting free filing, and (5) revise the explanation of the circumstances meriting free service by the sheriff or marshal.

The recommended revisions to implement AB 2096 are highlighted in yellow in the attached forms, and the recommended revisions to implement SB 899 are in gray.

Removing "private"

Under existing law, Code of Civil Procedure section 527.85 defines "postsecondary educational institution" to mean "a private institution of vocational, professional, or postsecondary education." AB 2096 removes the word "private" from the definition of "postsecondary educational institution," thereby expanding the definition to include public institutions.¹

¹ Please note that proposed revised forms are highlighted in the forms included in this proposal, to the extent possible. However, deletions do not show in highlighting. The deletion of "private" is the only recommended revision on several of the forms in this report.

Criteria for seeking a protective order or injunction

Under existing law, Code of Civil Procedure section 527.85(a) authorizes certain postsecondary educational institution officers and employees to seek a temporary restraining order or injunction on behalf of a student who suffers a credible threat of violence "made off the school campus or facility from any individual which can reasonably be construed to be carried out or to have been carried out at the school campus or facility." AB 2096 removes the location language quoted above and broadens the criteria for seeking these orders to include unlawful violence in addition to credible threats of violence.

The committee recommends removing the language regarding a credible threat of violence made off the campus or facility that can reasonably be construed to be carried out or to have been carried out at the campus or facility from item 8 of the petition (form SV-100), item 5 of the notice of court hearing (form SV-109), and two information sheets (forms SV-100-INFO and SV-120-INFO).

In addition to credible threats of violence, AB 2096 includes protections for students who have suffered unlawful violence, which Code of Civil Procedure section 527.85(b) defines as "assault or battery, or stalking as prohibited in Section 646.9 of the Penal Code," but which excludes "lawful acts of self-defense or defense of others." The committee therefore recommends revising item 5 of the notice of court hearing (form SV-109) and one information sheet (form SV-100-INFO) to mention assault, battery, or stalking.

Personal conduct orders

On the existing petition (form SV-100), the request for personal conduct orders mentions stalking twice by including a request that the respondent not (1) "follow or stalk the person during school hours or to or from the campus or facility," or (2) "stalk" the person. However, the personal conduct orders on the temporary restraining order (form SV-110) and order after hearing (form SV-130) only mention stalking in the first sense and not in the second sense.

As amended by SB 899, Code of Civil Procedure section 527.85(j) provides that, if a judge finds by clear and convincing evidence that the respondent engaged in unlawful violence or made a credible threat of violence, an order shall issue prohibiting further unlawful violence or threats of violence.⁴ As described above, the definition of "unlawful violence" in Code of Civil Procedure section 527.85(b) contemplates stalking.

The committee therefore recommends adding "stalking" to the personal conduct orders on the temporary restraining order (form SV-110) and order after hearing (form SV-130).

² For additional information regarding stalking in this sense, see Code of Civil Procedure section 527.85(b)(2)–(3).

³ For additional information regarding stalking in this sense, see Code of Civil Procedure section 527.85(b)(8).

⁴ The committee notes that, even before AB 2096, Code of Civil Procedure section 527.85(b)(8) defined a "temporary restraining order" and an "order after hearing" for purposes of that section to mean orders that enjoin a party from stalking the student, whether issued ex parte or after notice and hearing.

Circumstances meriting free filing

Existing Code of Civil Procedure section 527.85(w) provides that there is no filing fee for a petition that alleges that a person has "threatened violence against a student of the petitioner, or stalked the student, or acted or spoken in any other manner that has placed the student in reasonable fear of violence." Under AB 2096, there is no filing fee for a petition that alleges that a person has "inflicted unlawful violence, including stalking, or made a credible threat against a student of the petitioner."

As discussed above, Code of Civil Procedure section 527.85(b) defines "unlawful violence" as "assault or battery, or stalking." Accordingly, the committee recommends revising item 14 on the petition (form SV-100) to reflect the legislation's expansion of free filing to include allegations of assault or battery, in addition to stalking.

Circumstances meriting free service of process

Existing Code of Civil Procedure section 527.85(x)(1) provides that there is no fee for service of process by a sheriff or marshal of a temporary restraining order or order after hearing if the order issued is based upon a credible threat of violence or stalking. AB 2096 prohibits fees for such service if a temporary restraining order or order after hearing is based upon "unlawful violence, including stalking" or "a credible threat of violence."

The committee therefore proposes revising all existing mentions of free service by the sheriff or marshal in this form group to reflect the language of AB 2096. The proposed revisions include item 15 of the petition (form SV-100), item 14 of the temporary restraining order (form SV-110), item 7 of the order on request to continue (form SV-116), item 18 of the order after hearing (form SV-130), item 6 of the order to reschedule to renew (form SV-716), and one information sheet (form SV-200-INFO).

Other recommended revisions

It came to the committee's attention that, unlike the other free service items for postsecondary school violence restraining orders,⁵ the existing free service language on the order after hearing (form SV-130) did not mention free service because of the petitioner's entitlement to a fee waiver.⁶ Therefore, the committee proposes revising the free service language on form SV-130 so that it mirrors the language seen on the other forms within this form set.

The committee also proposes various revisions to enhance clarity, reflect current law, and reflect current best practices for Judicial Council forms. Those revisions include:

• Revising form SV-100 to delete item 8.b, which asks for the address of the campus or facility, and moving that information to item 2;

⁵ For example, see existing forms SV-110, SV-116, and SV-716, all of which (1) contain checkboxes indicating whether free service was ordered, and (2) provide language regarding free service because of the petitioner's entitlement to a fee waiver.

⁶ Gov. Code, § 26720.5; Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.55.

- Revising text under the heading "Who can get this school violence protection order?" on form SV-100-INFO by replacing "may request court orders prohibiting credible threats of violence against a student" with "may request these court orders" because proposed revisions on the same page of form SV-100-INFO already flag both credible threats of violence and assault, battery, or stalking;
- Revising form SV-100-INFO under the heading "What forms must be used to get the order?" to delete the first clause, which does not describe the list that follows;
- Revising the instructions under item 4 on form SV-109 to reflect that a restraining order could last up to three years, not five years;
- Revising item 1 in forms SV-110 and SV-130 to list the name of the postsecondary educational institution;
- Revising the text appearing under the heading "After You Have Been Served With a Restraining Order" on form SV-110 to reflect current law by indicating that the petition alleges certain actions against students rather than against employees;
- On several forms, changing "credible threats of violence or assault, battery, or stalking" to "assault, battery, or stalking, or to a credible threat of violence," to clarify that "credible threat" modifies only "of violence" and not the other items in the list;
- Replacing gendered language with gender-neutral language throughout the forms;
- Decapitalizing various words, including "order;"
- Updating various URLs throughout the forms; and
- Revising the format of statutory citations throughout the forms.

Policy implications

The revised forms in this proposal largely implement new law enacted by the Legislature. The revised forms also undertake a number of clarifying corrections and make the forms more user-friendly. This helps implement Goal I, Access, Fairness, Diversity, and Inclusion, of the Judicial Council's strategic plan by helping to make forms easier to complete and understand for self-represented litigants.

Comments

This proposal was released for public comment from April 14 through May 23, 2025. Four commenters responded to the proposal. Two commenters agreed with the proposal, one agreed if modified, and one did not indicate a position; no commenters disagreed with the proposal. Commenters were the Superior Courts of Los Angeles and San Bernardino Counties, the Orange County Bar Association, and the Joint Rules Subcommittee of the Trial Court Presiding Judges Advisory Committee and the Court Executives Advisory Committee (Joint Rules Subcommittee), and one individual. All comments and the committee's responses are provided in the attached chart of comments at pages 88–90.

The Joint Rules Subcommittee, which took an agreed-if-modified position, suggested the deletion of a duplicative "and" on item 17 of form SV-130. The committee recommends this approach.

The jurat on form SV-100

A member of the Rules Committee recommended revising the jurat on form SV-100. Currently, the postsecondary school violence restraining order petitions require the petitioner to declare that the information above and on all attachments is true and correct. However, the statute governing this order type authorizes certain persons to seek an order on behalf of another, and therefore, the petitioner may not have firsthand knowledge of the facts underlying the petition.

After surveying the language used in this regard on other council forms,⁸ the committee recommends the following revision to the jurat of form SV-100:

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the information above and on all attachments is true and correct, except as to those matters stated on information and belief, and as to those matters, I am informed and believe them to be true.

Alternatives considered

The committee did not consider the alternative of taking no action because form revisions are needed to comply with AB 2096. To the extent the proposed revisions were not required by the terms of AB 2096, the committee considered taking no action but ultimately determined the revisions were warranted in light of the benefits the revisions would provide to the courts and court users.

The committee discussed whether to use "unlawful violence" across these forms, or to instead use "assault, battery, or stalking." The committee recommends using "assault, battery, or stalking," as those terms are more readily understood than "unlawful violence" and there is existing precedent for using "assault, battery, or stalking" within this form group.

Fiscal and Operational Impacts

The committee anticipates that this proposal will require courts to train court staff and judicial officers on the newly approved and revised forms. Courts will also incur costs to incorporate the revised forms into paper or electronic processes. Most of the impacts arising from this new law—including education of judicial officers, staff, and justice partners as to the new provisions—are a result of the changes in statute, not the forms proposal, and therefore cannot be avoided.

How Do I Get an Order to Prohibit Postsecondary School Violence?

These instructions cannot cover all of the questions that may arise in a particular case. If you do not know what to do to protect your rights, you should see a lawyer.

What is a postsecondary school violence protection order?

Under California law (Code Civ. Proc., § 527.85), courts can make orders to protect a student from being subjected to assault, battery, or stalking, or to a credible threat of violence. The procedure is only available with regard to students at postsecondary institutions.

The court can order a person not to:

- Harass or threaten the student;
- Contact or go near the student; and
- Have any firearms (guns), firearm parts, ammunition, or body armor. This includes firearm receivers and frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531).
 For more information about the items a restrained person cannot have, please see selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/restraining-orders/prohibited-items.

These orders will be enforced by law enforcement agencies.

Who can get a postsecondary school violence protection order?

The chief administrative officer of a postsecondary educational institution, or an officer or employee designated by the chief administrative officer to maintain order on the school campus or facility, may request these court orders. These orders must be requested by an officer of the institution that the student attends or is applying to.

- A "chief administrative officer" is the principal, president, or highest-ranking official of the postsecondary educational institution.
- A "postsecondary educational institution" is an institution of vocational, professional, or postsecondary education.

The statute differs from other California laws that allow victims of unlawful violence or credible threats of violence to ask the court for these orders themselves. If anyone other than a school officer wishes to apply to the court for an order prohibiting harassment, see Can a Civil Harassment Restraining Order Help Me? (form CH-100-INFO.

Who can be protected under this law?

Under this statute, the school officer can obtain a court order on behalf of a student. The court order can last up to three years. The order can also protect family or household members of the student and other students at the campus or facility who are similarly situated.

- A "student" is an adult currently enrolled in or applying for admission to a postsecondary educational institution.
- The "respondent" is the person against whom the school official is requesting the protective order.

A school official may seek protection under this law if:

- 1. The student has suffered assault, battery, or stalking, or a credible threat of violence;
- 2. The respondent's conduct is not allowable as part of a legitimate labor dispute as permitted by Code of Civil Procedure section 527.3; and
- 3. The respondent is not engaged in constitutionally protected activity.

What forms must be used to get the order?

- 1. Petition for Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Orders (Petition) (form SV-100). This form tells the judge the facts of the case and what orders the petitioner and student want the court to make.
- Confidential CLETS Information (form CLETS-001). This form will provide law enforcement agencies with the information needed to enforce any orders that are granted.
- 3. Notice of Court Hearing (form SV-109). This form tells the parties when the hearing on the petition will be held.
- 4. Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) (form SV-110). A TRO can be issued to provide protection to the student until the hearing is held. It can be issued by the judge either with or without notice to the respondent.
- 5. Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Order After Hearing (Order) (form SV-130). This form is signed by the court following the hearing. The order can last for up to three years depending on what the judge rules.

SV-100-INFO

How Do I Get an Order to Prohibit Postsecondary School Violence?

These forms are all mandatory—that is, they must be used in the school violence prevention proceeding.

6. Proof of Personal Service (form SV-200). This form is used to show that the other party has been served with the petition and other forms as required by law.

Where can I get these forms?

You can get the forms from legal publishers or from the California Courts website at courts.ca.gov/rules-forms/find-your-court-forms. You also may be able to find them at your local courthouse or county law library.

Do I need a lawyer?

The school official may be represented by a lawyer, but one is not required by law. Because the school official's lawyer will generally be representing the interests of the student, the student usually does not need their own lawyer. Whether or not the school official has a lawyer, the respondent may have one.

What steps are needed to get the court orders?

- 1. Fill in the Petition (form SV-100) completely and fill in items 1–3 of the Notice of Court Hearing (form SV-109). If you are seeking a TRO, also fill out form SV-110.
- 2. If you are seeking orders based on information from your student and others and not based on what you have personally observed, you must have each of those persons complete a declaration to attach to the Petition (form SV-100). You may use form MC-031, Attached Declaration.
- 3. Fill in Confidential CLETS Information (form CLETS-001) with as much information as you know. If the judge grants the order, the information on this form will be entered into a statewide protective-order database that will be available to law enforcement agencies if the order needs to be enforced.
- 4. If you are applying for a TRO, fill out form SV-110 completely. The petition and declarations must give the details of assault, battery, or stalking, or the credible threat of violence, and the problems they have caused your student.

To obtain a TRO, you must notify the respondent of the request for the temporary order unless both of the following requirements are satisfied:

- a. It appears from facts shown on the petition that great or irreparable injury will result before the matter can be heard on notice; and
- b. You or your attorney certifies one of the following to the court under oath:
 - That within a reasonable time before presenting the petition to the court to ask for a TRO, you informed the respondent or the respondent's attorney when and where the request for a TRO would be made;
 - (2) That you in good faith attempted but were unable to inform the respondent and the respondent's attorney, specifying the efforts made to contact them; or
 - (3) That for reasons specified, you should not be required to inform the respondent or the respondent's attorney.
- 5. Take your original completed forms and copies to the clerk's office at the court. You will need at least three copies: one for you, one for the student, and one to serve on the respondent. If there are other persons to be protected by the order, you will need additional copies of the TRO. A protected person will need a copy of the TRO if it is necessary to call the police. The clerk will file the originals, assign a case number, and return the copies "file-stamped" to you. The clerk will write your hearing date on the Notice of Court Hearing (form SV-109).
- 6. If you are seeking a TRO (form SV-110), the clerk will tell you where and how to present your proposed order to a judge for consideration and signature. The court will decide within 24 hours whether or not to make the order. Sometimes the court decides right away. Ask the clerk if you should wait or come back later. If your request for a TRO is granted while you are still at the court, take the signed original back to the clerk to be filed.

How Do I Get an Order to Prohibit Postsecondary School Violence?

7. If a TRO has been issued, ask the clerk whether you or your lawyer will need to deliver a file-stamped copy of the TRO to each law enforcement agency (police, marshal, or sheriff's office) that might be called on to enforce the order. If so, do so immediately.

If the court issues a TRO, it will last until the hearing date.

- 8. If the student does not speak English, when you file your papers, ask the clerk if a court interpreter will be available for the hearing. You can also use form INT-300, Request for Interpreter (Civil) or a local court form or website to request an interpreter. For more information about court interpreters, go to selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/request-interpreter.
- 9. Have the respondent personally served with copies of the Petition (form SV-100), the Notice of Court Hearing (form SV-109), the TRO (form SV-110) (if issued), a blank Response (form SV-120), and a blank Proof of Service of Response by Mail (form SV-250). You cannot serve the respondent yourself. Service may be made by a licensed process server, the sheriff's department, or any person 18 years of age or older, other than you, the student, or anyone to be protected by the order. For help with service, ask the court clerk for form SV-200-INFO, What Is "Proof of Personal Service"?

Service is essential. It tells the respondent about the order and the hearing. Without it, there cannot be a court hearing, and your temporary orders will no longer be good unless they are extended by the court. The respondent should be personally served immediately after the orders are signed by the judge, unless the court specifies a different time for service.

10. After the respondent has been personally served, the person who served the respondent must complete and sign the original Proof of Personal Service (form SV-200). Take the signed original and copies back to the court clerk. The clerk will file the original and return "file-stamped" copies to you. Ask the clerk whether you should take a file-stamped copy to each law enforcement agency that might be called on to enforce the order. If so, do so immediately.

Rev. January 1, 2026

11.Go to court on the date shown at item 4 on the Notice of Court Hearing (form SV-109). You do not need to bring any witnesses, but it helps to have more proof of the violence or threats than just one person's word.

You can bring to the hearing:

- Witnesses
- Written statements from witnesses made under oath
- Photos
- Medical or police reports

SV-109 Notice of Court Hearing

- Damaged property
- Threatening letters, emails, or telephone messages

The court may or may not let witnesses speak at the hearing. So, if possible, you should bring their written statements under oath to the hearing. (You can use form MC-030, Declaration.)

The respondent has the right to attend the hearing, but the respondent does not have the right to speak to the student or to any other person seeking protection. If anyone is afraid, tell the court officer.

How Do I Get an Order to Prohibit Postsecondary School Violence?

- 12. If the judge signs the Order (form SV-130), ask the clerk to provide you with a file-stamped copy for each person to be protected. Ask the clerk whether you or your attorney will need to deliver a file-stamped copy of the Order to each law enforcement agency that might be called on to enforce the order. If so, do so immediately.
- 13. If the respondent attended the hearing and heard the terms of the Order from the court, no additional proof of service is necessary. If the respondent did not attend the hearing, but the Order issued is the same as the TRO (except for the termination date), the Order may be served on the respondent by mail. File form SV-260, Proof of Service of Order After Hearing by Mail. If the respondent did not attend the hearing and the Order differs from the TRO, arrange to have the respondent personally served with a copy of the Order. File the completed Proof of Personal Service (form SV-200) with the court. Give a file-stamped copy of the Order and proof of service to your student and to each other protected person. Keep at least one copy for yourself.
- 14. Once the order is issued, only the judge can change or cancel it. You or the respondent would have to file a request with the court to cancel the order.
- 15. If the respondent does not obey the order, call the police. The respondent can be arrested and charged with a crime.

What if I have a disability?

If you have a disability and need an accommodation while you are at court, you can use form MC-410, Disability Accommodation Request, to make your request. You can also ask the ADA Coordinator in your court for help. For more information, see form MC-410-INFO, How to Request a Disability Accommodation for Court.

Information about the process is also available online.

- If you want to respond to the request for orders in writing, file form SV-120, Response to Petition for Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Orders, and have someone age 18 or older—not you or anyone to be protected—mail it to the petitioner.
- The person who mailed the form must fill out a proof of service form. Form SV-250, Proof of Service of Response by Mail, may be used. File the completed form with the court before the hearing and bring a copy with you to the court hearing.
- Whether or not you respond in writing, go to the hearing if you want the judge to hear from you before making an order. You may tell the judge why you agree or disagree with the orders requested.
- You may bring witnesses and other evidence.
- At the hearing, the judge may make restraining orders against you that could last up to three years and may order you to turn in to law enforcement, or sell to or store with a licensed gun dealer, any firearms (guns), firearm parts, and ammunition that you own or possess. This includes firearm receivers and frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531). If an order is granted, you will also be prohibited from owning, possessing, or buying body armor and will have to relinquish any body armor you have.
- If you are unable to attend your court hearing or need more time to prepare your case, you may ask to reschedule your court date. Read form SV-115-INFO, How to Ask for a New Hearing Date.

Warnings and Notices to the Restrained Person in 3

You Cannot Have Firearms (Guns), Firearm Parts, or Ammunition

You cannot own, have, possess, buy or try to buy, receive or try to receive, or otherwise get any prohibited items listed in 8 b on page 3 while this order is in effect. If you do, you can go to jail and pay a $1,000 fine. You must sell to or store with a licensed gun dealer, or turn in to a law enforcement agency, any firearms (guns), firearm parts, and ammunition that you have or control as stated in 8 above. The court will require you to prove that you did so.

Notice Regarding Nonappearance at Hearing and Service of Order

If you have been personally served with this Temporary Restraining Order and form SV-109, Notice of Court Hearing, but you do not appear at the hearing either in person or by a lawyer, and a restraining order that is the same as this Temporary Restraining Order except for the expiration date is issued at the hearing, a copy of the order will be served on you by mail at the address in (3).

If this address is not correct or you wish to verify that the Temporary Restraining Order was converted into a restraining order at the hearing without substantive change, or to find out the duration of the order, contact the clerk of the court.

After You Have Been Served With a Restraining Order

- Obey all the orders. Any intentional violation of this order is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine or by imprisonment in a county jail, or by both fine and imprisonment. (Pen. Code, § 273.6.)
- Read form SV-120-INFO, How Can I Respond to a Petition for Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Orders?, to learn how to respond to this order.
- If you want to respond, fill out form SV-120, Response to Petition for Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Orders, and file it with the court clerk. You do not have to pay any fee to file your response if the petition claims that you made a credible threat against the student or assaulted, battered, or stalked the student.
- You must have form SV-120 served on the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney by mail. You cannot do this yourself. The person who does the service should complete and sign form SV-250, Proof of Service of Response by Mail. File the completed proof of service with the court clerk before the hearing date or bring it with you to the hearing.
- In addition to the response, you may file and have declarations served, signed by you and other persons who have personal knowledge of the facts. You may use form MC-030, Declaration, for this purpose. It is available from the clerk's office at the court shown on page 1 of this form or at court-forms. If you do not know how to prepare a declaration, you should see a lawyer.
- Whether or not you file a response, you should attend the hearing. If you have any witnesses, they must also go to the hearing.
- At the hearing, the judge can make restraining orders against you that last for up to three years. Tell the judge why you disagree with the orders requested.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

Enforcing the Restraining Order

This order is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Restraining and Protective Orders System (CARPOS). Agencies are encouraged to enter violation messages into CARPOS. If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then must enforce it. Violations of this order are subject to criminal penalties.

Start Date and End Date of Orders

This order starts on the date next to the judge's signature on page 4. The order ends on the expiration date in (5) on page 1.

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, this order remains in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The order can be changed only by another court order. (Pen. Code, § 13710(b).)

Conflicting Orders—Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued protecting the protected person from the restrained person, the orders must be enforced in the following priority (see Pen. Code, § 136.2; Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h)(2), 6405(b); Code Civ. Proc., § 527.12(d)(2)):

- 1. Emergency Protective Order (EPO): If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001), provisions (e.g., stay-away order) that are more restrictive than in the other restraining/protective orders must be enforced. Provisions of another order that do not conflict with the EPO must also be enforced.
- 2. No-Contact Order: If a restraining/protective order includes a no-contact order, the no-contact order must be enforced. (6)a(4) is an example of a no-contact order.
- 3. Criminal Protective Order (CPO): If none of the orders includes an EPO or a no-contact order, the most recent CPO must be enforced. (Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h)(2), 6405(b); Code Civ. Proc., § 527.12(d)(2).) Additionally, a CPO issued in a criminal case involving charges of domestic violence, Penal Code sections 261, 261.5, or former 262, or charges requiring sex offender registration must be enforced over any civil court order. (Pen. Code, § 136.2(e)(2).) All provisions in the civil court order that do not conflict with the CPO must also be enforced.
- 4. Civil Restraining Orders: If there is more than one civil restraining order (e.g., domestic violence, juvenile, elder abuse, civil harassment), then the order that was issued last must be enforced. Provisions that do not conflict with the most recent civil restraining order must also be enforced.

This is a Court Order.

How to Ask for a New Hearing Date

DRAFT 2025-05-29 Not approved by the Judicial Council

1

You may need to ask for a new court date if:

- You are the petitioner and are unable to have Notice of Court Hearing (form SV-109) and other papers served in time before your court date.
- You are the respondent and are making your first request to reschedule your court date.
- You have a good reason for needing a new court date. (The court may grant your request to reschedule your court date on a showing of good cause.)

(2) What does form SV-115 do?

Use Request to Continue Hearing (form SV-115) to ask the court to reschedule your court date. If your court date is rescheduled and a Temporary Restraining Order (TRO; form SV-110) was granted, the TRO will be extended until the end of your new court date unless the court decides to modify or terminate it. "Extend" means to keep any temporary orders in effect until the new court date.

(3) Follow these steps:

- Fill out all of form SV-115.
- Fill out items 1 through 2 on Order on Request to Continue Hearing (form SV-116).
- The judge will need to review your papers. In some courts, you must give your papers to the clerk. Ask the court clerk for information on how you ask the judge to review your papers.
- After you turn in your forms as required by your local court, check with the clerk's office to see if the judge approved (granted) your request to reschedule your court date.
- If the judge signed form SV-116, the court will give you a new court date. If the judge did NOT sign the form, you should go to court at the date, time, and location that is on form SV-109.
- Next, file both forms SV-115 and SV-116 with the clerk. The clerk will make up to three file-stamped copies for you. Keep at least one copy to bring to your court date.
- The other party must be served with a copy of the court papers as described in item 6 on form SV-116.
- Ask the person who serves the papers to complete a proof of service form and give it to you. If service was in person, use Proof of Personal Service (form SV-200). If service was by mail, use Proof of Service—Civil (form POS-040). Make two copies of the completed forms.
- File the completed and signed proof of service form with the clerk's office before your court date.
- If the court reschedules your court date and extends the TRO to the new court date, the clerk will send the TRO to law enforcement. It will be entered into a statewide computer system that lets police know about the order so that it can be enforced.

(4) Go to your court date

- Take at least two copies of your documents and filed forms to your court date. Include a filed proof of service form. "Documents" may include exhibits, declarations, and financial statements, and the court may enter them into evidence at its discretion.
- If you are the petitioner and you do not go to your court date, the TRO will expire at the end of your new court date.
- If you are the respondent and you do not go to your court date, the court can still make orders against you that can last for up to three years.

How Can I Respond to a Petition for Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Orders?

What is a postsecondary school violence restraining order?

It is a court order that prohibits you from doing certain things and going certain places.

What does the order do?

The court can order you to:

- Not contact the student who is protected by the order
- Stay away from the student and the student's home, school, and other places
- Not have any firearms (guns), firearm parts, ammunition, or body armor as long as the order is in effect. This includes firearm receivers and frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531).

For more information about the items you would not be allowed to have, please see selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/restraining-orders/prohibited-items.

Who can ask for a postsecondary school violence restraining order?

The chief administrative officer of a postsecondary educational institution, or an officer or employee designated by the chief administrative officer to maintain order on the school campus or facility, may request these court orders.

I've been served with a petition for postsecondary school violence restraining orders. What do I do now?

Read the papers served on you very carefully. The Notice of Court Hearing tells you when to appear in court. There may also be a Temporary Restraining Order forbidding you from doing certain things. You must obey the order until the hearing.

What if I don't agree with what the order says?

You still must obey the order until the hearing. If you disagree with the orders the person is asking for, fill out form SV-120, Response to Petition for Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Orders, before your hearing date and file it with the court. If you need to include attachments, you can use form MC-025. You can get the forms from legal publishers or from the California Courts website at courts.ca.gov/rules-forms/find-your-court-forms. You also may be able to find them at your local courthouse or county law library.

What if I don't obey the order?

The police can arrest you. You can go to jail and pay a fine.

Do I have to serve the other person with a copy of my response?

Yes. Have someone age 18 or older—not you—mail a copy of completed form SV-120 to the person named in item 1 of the petition form SV-100 (or to that person's lawyer). (This is called "service by mail.")

The person who serves the form by mail for you must fill out form SV-250, Proof of Service of Response by Mail. Have the person who did the mailing sign the original. Take the completed form back to the court clerk or bring it with you to the hearing.

Should I go to the court hearing?

Yes. You should go to court on the date listed on form SV-109, Notice of Court Hearing. If you do not go to the hearing, the judge can make orders against you without hearing from you.

How Can I Respond to a Petition for Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Orders?

How long does the order last?

If the court issued a temporary restraining order before the hearing, it will last until your hearing date. At that time, the court will decide to continue or cancel the order. Any order issued at the hearing can last for up to three years.

Do I need a lawyer?

Having a lawyer is always a good idea, but it is not required, and you are not entitled to a free, court-appointed attorney. Ask the court clerk about free and low-cost legal services and self-help centers in your county.

Will I see the student at the court hearing?

Yes. Assume that the student will attend the hearing. Do not talk to the student unless the judge or the student's attorney says that you can.

Can I bring a witness to the court hearing?

Yes. You can bring witnesses or documents that support your case to the hearing. But if possible, you should also bring the witnesses' written statements of what they saw or heard. Their statements must be made under penalty of perjury. You can use form MC-030 for this.

What if I don't speak English?

When you file your papers, ask the clerk if a court interpreter is available. You can also use form INT-300, Request for Interpreter (Civil), or a local court form or website to request an interpreter. For more information about court interpreters, go to selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/request-interpreter.

Information about the process is also available online.

See selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/SV-restraining-order.

[Local information may be inserted.]

What if I have a firearm (gun), firearm part, or ammunition?

If a restraining order is issued, you cannot own, possess, or have a firearm (gun), firearm parts, ammunition, or body armor while the order is in effect. If you have a firearm (gun), firearm parts, or ammunition, you must sell it to or store it with a licensed gun dealer, or turn it in to a law enforcement agency.

What if I need to have a firearm or ammunition for my job?

If the judge grants a restraining order against you, you cannot have firearms or ammunition. The judge may give you permission to have a firearm or ammunition for work. Before permission can be granted, you will be required to show the judge that (1) carrying a firearm or ammunition is required for your work, and (2) your employer is unable to reassign you to another position where carrying a firearm or ammunition is not necessary. There are other things that you will have to prove. For more information, go to selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/respond-to-SV-restraining-order/obey-firearms-orders/exception, or see Code of Civil Procedure section 527.9(f).

What if I need to have body armor?

If you need to have and use body armor for your work, livelihood, or safety, you may ask for an exception with the chief of police or sheriff in the county where you will have and use the body armor (see Penal Code section 31360(c)).

Can I agree with the protected person to cancel the order?

No. Once the order is issued, only the judge can change or cancel it. You or the school official would have to file a request with the court to cancel the order.

What if I have a disability?

If you have a disability and need an accommodation while you are at court, you can use form MC-410, Disability Accommodation Request, to make your request. You can also ask the ADA Coordinator in your court for help. For more information, see form MC-410-INFO, How to Request a Disability Accommodation for Court.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

Enforcing the Restraining Order

This order is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS). Agencies are encouraged to enter violation messages into CARPOS. If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, and the restrained person was not present at the court hearing (see 17), the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then must enforce it. Violations of this order are subject to criminal penalties.

Start Date and End Date of Orders

This order starts on the date next to the judge's signature on page 6 and ends on the expiration date in (5) on page 1.

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, this order remains in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The orders can be changed only by another court order. (Pen. Code, § 13710(b).)

(Case Number:

Conflicting Orders—Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued protecting the protected person from the restrained person, the orders must be enforced in the following priority (see Pen. Code, \S 136.2; Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h)(2), 6405(b); Code Civ. Proc., § 527.12(d)(2)):

- 1. Emergency Protective Order (EPO): If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001), provisions (e.g., stay-away order) that are more restrictive than in the other restraining/protective orders must be enforced. Provisions of another order that do not conflict with the EPO must also be enforced.
- 2. No-Contact Order: If a restraining/protective order includes a no-contact order, the no-contact order must be enforced. (7) a(4) is an example of a no-contact order.
- 3. Criminal Protective Order (CPO): If none of the orders includes an EPO or a no-contact order, the most recent CPO must be enforced. (Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h)(2), 6405(b); Code Civ. Proc., § 527.12(d)(2).) Additionally, a CPO issued in a criminal case involving charges of domestic violence, Penal Code sections 261, 261.5, or former 262, or charges requiring sex offender registration must be enforced over any civil court order. (Pen. Code, § 136.2(e)(2).) All provisions in the civil court order that do not conflict with the CPO must also be enforced.
- 4. Civil Restraining Orders: If there is more than one civil restraining order (e.g., domestic violence, juvenile, elder abuse, civil harassment), then the order that was issued last must be enforced. Provisions that do not conflict with the most recent civil restraining order must also be enforced.

What is "Service"?

Service is the act of giving legal papers to the other party. There are many kinds of service—in person, by mail, and others. This form is about personal or "in-person" service. The Petition for Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Orders (form SV-100), the Notice of Court Hearing (form SV-109), and the Temporary Restraining Order (form SV-110) must be served in person. That means that someone must personally "serve" (give) a copy of the forms to the person to be restrained. These forms cannot be served by mail.

Service lets the other person know:

- What orders you are asking for
- The hearing date
- How to respond

Why do I have to get the orders served?

- The police cannot arrest anyone for violating an order unless that person knows about the order.
- The judge cannot make the orders permanent unless the restrained person was served.

Don't serve it by mail!

Who can serve?

Ask someone you know, a process server, or a law enforcement agency to personally serve (give) a copy of the forms to the person to be restrained. You cannot send the forms to that person by mail.

The server must:

- Be 18 years of age or older
- Not be you or anyone whom you are asking to be protected by the orders The sheriff or marshal may be authorized to serve the court's orders for free if the orders are based on claims of a credible threat of violence or assault, battery, or stalking, or if you are eligible for a fee waiver. Another peace officer may also serve the order for free. See selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/SV-restraining-order/sheriff-servesrequest for additional information regarding free service by a sheriff, marshal, or other peace officer.

A registered process server is a business you pay to deliver court forms. Look for "Process Serving" in the Yellow Pages or on the internet. (If a law enforcement agency or the process server uses a different proof-of-service form, make sure it lists the forms served.)

How to serve

Ask the server to:

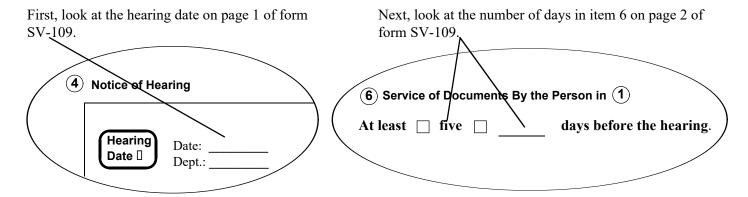

- Walk up to the person to be served.
- Make sure it is the right person. Ask the person's name.
- Give the person copies of all papers checked on form SV-200, Proof of Personal Service.
- Fill out and sign the Proof of Personal Service.
- Give the signed Proof of Personal Service to you.

What if the person won't take the papers or tears them up?

- If the person will not take the papers, just leave the papers near them.
- It does not matter if the person tears the papers up. Service is still complete.

When do the orders have to be served?

It depends. To know the exact date, you have to look at two things on form SV-109, Notice of Court Hearing.

Look at a calendar. Subtract the number of days in item 6 from the hearing date. That is the final date to have the orders served. It is always okay to serve earlier than that date.

If nothing is checked or written in item 6, you must serve the orders at least five days before the hearing.

Who signs the Proof of Personal Service?

Only the person who serves the forms can sign form SV-200, Proof of Personal Service. You do not sign it; the restrained person does not need to sign it.

What do I do with the completed Proof of Personal Service?

If someone other than the sheriff serves the papers, you should:

- Make several copies.
- File the original with the court before your hearing.
- Ask the clerk to enter it into the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS), a special computer system that lets police all over the state find out about the orders protecting you.
- If the clerk tells you that the court cannot enter it into the computer, take a copy of the Temporary Restraining Order (form SV-110) and Proof of Personal Service (form SV-200) to your local police. They will put the information into the state computer system. That way, police all over the state will know that your restraining order has been served.
- Bring a copy of the completed Proof of Personal Service to your hearing.
- Always keep an extra copy of the restraining orders with you for your safety.

If the sheriff or another peace officer serves the papers, they will send proof of service to the court for you. The sheriff will also send proof of service to CLETS for you.

What happens if I can't get the orders served before the hearing date?

Before your hearing, fill out and file form SV-115, Request to Continue Court Hearing. This form asks the court for a new hearing date and makes your orders last until then. Ask the clerk for the form. After the court has reissued the orders, attach a copy of form SV-116, Order on Request to Continue Hearing to a copy of your original orders. Ask the clerk to enter form SV-116 into CLETS, or the clerk may ask you or your attorney to deliver a copy to the police. That way, the police will know your orders are still in effect.

- a. Someone age 18 or older—not you—must serve a copy of the following forms on the other party or parties:
 - SV-600, Request to Modify/Terminate Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Order;
 - SV-610, Notice of Hearing on Request to Modify/Terminate Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Order (this form);
 - SV-620, Response to Request to Modify/Terminate Postsecondary School Violence Restraining Order (blank copy).

The forms must be served on the other party days before the hearing.

Case Number:

- b. If you are the Respondent: You must have the protected person personally served with these forms. This requirement of personal service on the protected person is not a justification for you to violate the terms of the restraining order. You must also serve the Petitioner educational institution officer or employee. Service on the Petitioner may be by mail.
- c. If you are the Petitioner Education Institution Officer or Employee and you are requesting modification or termination other than at the request of the protected person: You must have the protected person personally served with these forms. You must also serve the Respondent. Service on the Respondent may be by mail.
- d If you are the Protected Person: The Respondent and Petitioner educational institution officer or employee may be served with these forms by mail.
- e. The person who serves the forms must fill out either form SV-200, Proof of Personal Service, or form SV-250, Proof of Service of Response by Mail (or both). Have the person who served sign the original. Take the signed original proof-of-service form back to the court clerk for filing or bring it with you to the hearing. For help with personal service, see form SV-200-INFO, What Is "Proof of Personal Service"?.

Your Next Steps

- Complete form SV-716, Order to Reschedule Hearing to Renew Restraining Order (only items 1 and 2).
- File forms SV-715 and SV-716 with the court. A judge will review your forms and decide whether to reschedule your court date.
- If the judge grants your request to reschedule your court date, you must have someone serve a copy of all forms listed on form SV-716, item 5. Your server can be the sheriff or another adult who is not involved in the case. For more information on how to serve the restrained person, go to selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/SV-restraining-order/renew/sheriff-serves.
- If the judge denies your request to reschedule, you must go to your court hearing (listed on form SV-710).

How Do I Turn In, Sell, or Store My Firearms, Firearm Parts, and Ammunition?

DRAFT 05/29/2025 Not approved by the Judicial Council

What items do I need to turn in, sell, or store?

You must turn in, sell, or store all of the following prohibited items that you have or control:

- Firearms, including any handgun, rifle, shotgun, and assault weapon;
- Firearm parts, meaning receivers, frames, or any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531), which may also be called ghost guns; and
- Ammunition.

How do I properly turn in, sell, or store the prohibited items?

You must take them to:

• Law enforcement, who will accept all prohibited items and may store them or destroy them;

OR

• A licensed gun dealer, who can buy or store firearms. If you have firearm parts, call ahead for more information.

When do I have to turn in, sell, or store the prohibited items?

Immediately, if law enforcement asks you for the items. Otherwise, within 24 hours.

Who can I turn in, sell, or store the prohibited items with?

Only law enforcement or a licensed gun dealer. You cannot give your prohibited items to a family member, friend, or anyone else.

Where can I sell the prohibited items?

At a licensed gun dealer in your area. You can search the internet for "Gun Dealers" or "Firearms Dealers" to find one. Make sure the dealer is licensed.

Do I have to pay a fee to store prohibited items?

You may have to pay a fee. Contact your local law enforcement agency or a licensed gun dealer about fees and whether they have space to store your items.

How do I turn in the prohibited items to law enforcement?

Call your local law enforcement agency to ask about their procedures. Unload your firearms and take a copy of the court order with you.

Do not bring firearms to court.

If I turn in the prohibited items to law enforcement, how long will they keep them?

It depends. There are procedures for getting your firearms back after the restraining order has expired. Ask the law enforcement agency for more information.

After I turn in the prohibited items to law enforcement, can I change my mind?

Yes. You are allowed to sell firearms to a licensed gun dealer. To do so, the gun dealer must present a bill of sale to your local law enforcement agency. The law enforcement agency will give the licensed gun dealer the items that you are selling.

Do I have to prove that I have turned in, sold, or stored the prohibited items?

Yes. Within 48 hours you must file a receipt with the court showing that you have surrendered the prohibited items to a law enforcement agency or sold them to or stored them with a licensed gun dealer. You may use Receipt for Firearms, Firearm Parts, and Ammunition (form SV-800) for this purpose.

Additional Questions?

Contact an attorney for legal advice. Call your local law enforcement agency, for example, your city police or county sheriff for their procedures.

Information about prohibited items and how to obey these orders is also available online.

		What would the implementation requirements be for courts—for example, training staff (please identify position and expected hours of training), revising processes and procedures (please describe), changing docket codes in case management systems, or modifying case management systems?	The committee appreciates the response.
		Minimal change will be required. Clerk's Office, Judicial Assistants, and Judges would need to be informed of the change. This can be done by email. No additional training required. Possibly brief revising needed for clerk's office procedures manual.
		Time would be needed for the clerk's office to update any forms in office with the revised forms and time would be needed for court tech to make sure correct forms are online. (1 day)
		No changes in the case management system would be needed.
