Executive Summary

Because Information on Filing a Petition to Terminate Juvenile Sex Offender Registration (form JV-915-INFO) contains two legally inaccurate statements, the Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee recommends revising the form so that it accurately reflects controlling statutory provisions.

Recommendation

The Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee recommends that the Judicial Council, effective January 1, 2026, revise Information on Filing a Petition to Terminate Juvenile Sex Offender Registration (form JV-915-INFO) to remove two legally inaccurate statements and make several minor technical changes. The proposed revised form is attached at pages 6–8.

Relevant Previous Council Action

The Judicial Council adopted form JV-915-INFO, effective September 1, 2023, to provide registrants with information on how to file a petition for termination of the requirement to register as a sex offender in California.

Analysis/Rationale

Background

In California, individuals convicted of certain enumerated criminal offenses must register as sex offenders. Historically, sex offender registration was a lifetime obligation for all registrants. In 2017, California adopted a tiered registration scheme, which became effective on January 1, 2021. (Sen. Bill 384 (Wiener); Stats. 2017, ch. 541.) Under the tiered registration system, individuals convicted of certain enumerated criminal offenses who meet certain other stated qualifications may petition the court to terminate their registration requirement after successfully completing a set period of registration.

Form JV-915-INFO currently states (1) the Department of Justice determines the registration tier for individuals required to register due to a juvenile adjudication, and (2) a subsequent conviction for an offense requiring sex offender registration or for a violent felony disqualifies an applicant from requesting termination of juvenile sex offender registration. Because neither of those statements reflects the controlling statutory provisions, the committee recommends their removal from the form.

Registration tiers for adults

Under the tiered registration scheme, individuals with a qualifying criminal conviction (as opposed to a qualifying juvenile adjudication) are classified as either a tier one, tier two, or tier three offender. Tier one offenders are eligible to petition the court for termination of their registration requirement after registering for at least 10 years, while most tier two offenders are generally eligible to do so after registering for a minimum of 20 years. Most tier three offenders are subject to the lifetime registration requirement and are not eligible to petition the court for termination of their registration requirement.

Certain individuals classified as tier two offenders may seek to petition the court for termination of their registration requirement after a minimum of 10 years (as opposed to the otherwise applicable 20 years). Among other criteria, these applicants must not have been convicted of a new offense that either requires sex offender registration or is listed in Penal Code section 667.5(c)¹ since their release from custody following their conviction for the offense originally giving rise to the duty to register.

Registration tiers for juveniles

Individuals with a qualifying juvenile adjudication are classified, based solely on their registrable offense, as either a tier one juvenile offender or a tier two juvenile offender. A tier one juvenile offender is an individual whose registrable offense is not considered a serious or violent felony under either section 667(c) or 1192.7(c), while a tier two juvenile offender is an individual whose registrable offense is considered a serious or violent felony under either section 667(c) or 1192.7(c). Individuals classified as tier one juvenile offenders must register for at least 5 years (instead of 10 years for a qualifying criminal conviction) before becoming eligible to petition the court for termination of their registration requirement. Individuals classified as tier two juvenile offenders must register for at least 10 years (instead of 20 years for a qualifying criminal conviction) before becoming eligible to petition for termination of their registration requirement.

Form JV-915-INFO

Form JV-915-INFO states that a juvenile offender's tier level is determined by the Department of Justice. That statement is incorrect. A juvenile offender's tier level is determined solely by whether their registrable offense is a serious or violent felony.

Form JV-915-INFO also states that any juvenile offender (whether tier one or tier two) must not have been convicted of a new offense requiring sex offender registration or for a new offense listed in section 667.5(c) since their release from custody following their conviction for the offense originally giving rise to the duty to register. That statement is also incorrect, as such a conviction does not affect a juvenile registrant's eligibility to petition for termination of registration.

The eligibility restriction is contained in section 290.5(b)(2), which expressly only applies to a tier two "offender" under section 290(d)(2) and not to a tier two "juvenile offender" as described in section 290.008(d)(2). Moreover, section 290(d)(2)(A) defines eligible tier two offenders as individuals who were "convicted" of certain offenses. Juvenile adjudications are not to be deemed "a conviction of a crime for any purpose." (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 203.) As a result, individuals who are required to register because of a juvenile adjudication are not subject to the prohibition.

Proposal

Item 3 on the form, in part, provides information for a juvenile offender to determine their tier. The item states, in part, "The Department of Justice will determine tier placement for all current registrants and will notify the law enforcement agency where you register." This statement is true for adults, but not juveniles. The committee recommends replacing this text with "If your registrable offense is considered either a serious or violent felony under either Penal Code section 667.5(c) or 1192.7(c), you are in Tier 2; if not, you are in Tier 1." This language is consistent with sections 290.008(d)(1) and (2), which state the tier level definitions for juveniles.

Item 4 on the form identifies five requirements (besides registering for the minimum time period) that must be satisfied for a juvenile offender to be eligible to petition for termination of the registration requirement. The committee recommends removing the following requirements from the list:

- You have not been convicted of a new offense requiring sex offender registration since your release from custody following your adjudication for the offense originally giving rise to your duty to register.

- You have not been convicted of a new offense described in Penal Code section 667.5(c) since your release from custody upon adjudication for the offense originally giving rise to your duty to register.

These requirements only apply to adults, not juveniles. The remaining listed requirements track the language of section 290.5(a)(2), and thus the committee does not propose substantive revision to them.

In addition to the changes described above, the committee recommends several minor changes to improve the clarity of the form and to add supplemental information.

Policy implications

The proposed revision will ensure that form JV-915-INFO accurately summarizes the relevant law. The policy choices have been made by the Legislature.

Comments

This proposal circulated for public comment from April 14 to May 23 during the spring 2025 invitation-to-comment cycle and received four comments, all of which agreed with the proposal as currently drafted. Comments were received from the Orange County Bar Association and the Superior Courts of Los Angeles, Orange, and San Diego Counties. A chart of the comments submitted is attached at pages 8–10.

Alternatives considered

The committee considered taking no action but rejected this option because without the proposed revisions, the form would contain inaccurate statements of law.

Fiscal and Operational Impacts

Fiscal and operational impacts are likely to be minor because the proposal is limited to two corrections and a few technical edits to an information sheet. Expected costs include training, case management system updates, and the production of new forms.

Commenters have suggested that implementation of the revised form will require training for staff; updating policies and procedures; updating macros, event codes, and forms in the case management system; providing communication to judicial officers and court staff; and ensuring self-help centers have access to the revised form.

1 General Information

- You must continue to register as a sex offender until a court grants your request to terminate the registration requirement.
- You may be required to register as a sex offender in another jurisdiction even if your requirement to register in California is terminated.
- Do not file evidence that shows proof of rehabilitation unless requested by the court after the petition is filed.
- Form JV-915 and proof of current registration may only be filed following the expiration of your mandated minimum registration period.
- This information sheet is for terminating registration based on adjudications in juvenile court. It does not address registration based on criminal convictions.
- Proof of current registration is available at the registering law enforcement agency.
- It is very important that you provide a dependable mailing address on form JV-915 so that the district attorney and the court can reach you. Contact the court immediately if your mailing address changes.

2 Am I eligible for relief under Penal Code section 290.5?

You may be eligible to petition for relief under Penal Code section 290.5 if:

- You are required to register as a sex offender under Penal Code section 290; and
- You have registered for the minimum time period for your assigned tier.

3 Which tier am I? How is my tier determined?

Your tier is based on the offense for which you were adjudicated and committed to the Division of Juvenile Justice. If your registrable offense is considered either a serious or violent felony under either Penal Code section 667.5(c) or 1192.7, you are in Tier 2; if not, you are in Tier 1. Registrants may request a tier notification letter from the registering law enforcement agency.

- Upon being adjudicated for a registrable offense, your minimum required registration period begins on the date you were released from the Division of Juvenile Justice.
- Any misdemeanor conviction for failure to register extends the minimum time period by one year, without regard to the actual time served in custody for the conviction. Any felony conviction for failure to register extends the minimum time period by three years, without regard to the actual time served in custody for the conviction.
- If the minimum registration period has not been tolled or extended, you are eligible for relief after you have registered for the following time periods:

If you are...	You must have registered for at least...
Tier 1 (Juvenile)	5 years
Tier 2 (Juvenile)	10 years

4 Are there any other requirements besides registering for my tier's minimum time period?

If you are assessed as Tier 1 or Tier 2, you are eligible to petition for relief only upon reaching the end of the minimum registration period, and only if all of the following are true:

- You are not the subject of pending criminal charges that could extend the time to complete the registration requirements of the tier or change the tier status;
- You are not in custody; and
- You are not on parole, probation, postconviction supervised release, or any other form of supervised release.

5 At the end of my minimum period of registration, where and how do I file my petition and proof of current registration with the court?

You may file form JV-915 and proof of current registration as a sex offender, which you can get from the registering law enforcement agency, in the juvenile court in the county where you register. If you register with more than one law enforcement agency (for example, if you are also required to register at a school campus or at an additional residence address), you must file the petition and proof of current registration in the county of your primary residence.

- Make a copy of the completed form JV-915 and proof of current registration for each law enforcement agency and district attorney's office you (or someone on your behalf) must serve.
- Contact the court clerk or check the court's website to see if any local rules exist regarding filing or serving the petition and proof of current registration and ask how you can receive proof of filing.
- File form JV-915 and proof of current registration by:
 - Taking them to the court clerk in person;
 - Mailing them to the court; or
 - Depending on the court's local rules and practices, filing them electronically.

6 Who else gets a copy of the petition and proof of current registration, and how?

After form JV-915 and proof of current registration are filed with the court, you or someone on your behalf must deliver a copy of the petition and the proof of current registration to:

- The law enforcement agency with which you currently register; and
- The district attorney in the county in which you currently register.

If you were adjudicated for a registrable offense in a county other than where you currently reside or register, the petition and proof of current registration must also be delivered to the law enforcement agency and the district attorney of the county of adjudication of the registrable offense.

- Example: If you were adjudicated for a registrable offense in Los Angeles County but register in Orange County, you or someone on your behalf must serve the law enforcement agency and the district attorney's office in both counties.
- Contact every agency that must be served to check if there is a specific person or mailing address that should receive the petition and proof of current registration. If the agencies do not get a copy, they will not be able to provide the information the court needs to consider your request, and the court may deny the request or delay its decision until it receives this information.

There are three main ways to serve the petition and proof of current registration (use Proof of Service—Juvenile Sex Offender Registration Termination (form JV-916) as a guide for the information you need to report back to the court about how and when the petition was served):

- Personal service: You may serve the petition and proof of current registration or ask someone else to do it. Go in person to hand-deliver the petition and proof of current registration to a representative of the law enforcement agency and district attorney's office during business hours. This is the most reliable form of service.
- Service by mail: Place copies of the petition and proof of current registration in a stamped, sealed envelope addressed to the law enforcement agency and district attorney's office. Put first-class postage on the envelope and mail it by depositing the envelope with the U.S. Postal Service or at an office or business mail drop where the mail is picked up every day and deposited with the U.S. Postal Service.

Alternatively, you may mail the documents by certified mail with a return receipt requested.

- Electronic service: Contact the law enforcement agency and district attorney's office to check if they accept electronic service and, if so, how to confirm receipt of service. The court may require proof of consent and proof of electronic service. You can use Consent to Electronic Service and Notice of Electronic Service Address (form EFS-005-CV) and Proof of Electronic Service (form EFS-050), available at courts.ca.gov/rules-forms/find-your-court-forms.

Your petition may be denied if all law enforcement agencies and district attorney offices required to be served are not served. When service is complete, you or the person who served the documents on your behalf must fill out Proof of Service—Juvenile Sex Offender Registration Termination (form JV-916) and file it with the court.

7 Time frame for court's decision

The court will not make a decision until it hears from the law enforcement agency and the district attorney. This may take four months or longer.

- The law enforcement agency has 60 days from receipt of the petition to report on your eligibility to the court and district attorney. The law enforcement agency may request more time if it discovers a conviction not previously considered by the Department of Justice.
- The district attorney may request a hearing within 60 days after receiving the eligibility report from law enforcement.
- Once you file your petition and proof of current registration and the court gives you a case number, you can see whether the court has received and filed any responses from the law enforcement agency and the district attorney's office by going in person to the juvenile court to request access to your paper file. The district attorney will also serve a copy of its response on you or your attorney.
- The court may grant your request, deny your request, or set the request for a hearing if one is requested by the district attorney. The court will notify you or your attorney if a hearing is set.

9 Subsequent petition

If the court denies your request, it will let you know how much time must pass before you can make the request again. That period must be at least one year from date of denial, but may not exceed five years, based on facts presented at the hearing.

8 Hearing

The district attorney in the county where the petition is filed may request a hearing if the district attorney does not believe you have registered for the minimum time period required or if they believe that you should continue registering for the safety of the community. If the court must decide at the hearing whether you should continue to register for the safety of the community, the court will make its decision by considering the facts of your case, your conduct before and after the adjudication, and your current risk of sexual or violent re-offense, among other factors.

If the district attorney does not request a hearing, the court must grant the petition for termination if (1) you provided proof of current registration, (2) the registering law enforcement agency reported that you met the requirements for termination, (3) there are no pending charges against you that could extend the minimum time you are required to register, and (4) you are not in custody or on parole, probation, or supervised release.

1.	Orange County Bar Association By Mei Tsang, President	A	Comments: removes language that doesn't apply to juvenile adjudications 1) The proposal appropriately addresses the stated purpose 2) there are no other legal inaccuracies	The committee appreciates the information provided.
2.	Superior Court of Los Angeles County By Stephanie Kuo	A	In response to the Judicial Council of California's ITC, "Juvenile Law: Sex Offender Registration," the Court agrees with the proposal and its ability to appropriately address its stated purpose. Additionally, the Court finds that there are no other legally inaccurate statements in the form. Although the Court does not see any cost savings from the proposal, it anticipates minimal implementation requirements, which include but are not limited to: Training for staff, Updating policies and procedures, Updating macros, event codes, and forms in the case management system. Lastly, the Court agrees that three to six months from Judicial Council approval of this proposal until its effective date will provide sufficient time for implementation and that this proposal would work well in courts of different sizes.	The committee appreciates the information provided. The committee notes that, under this year's calendar, there will be two months between Judicial Council approval and the effective date of the revised form. Other courts have indicated that this lead time is sufficient; the committee hopes it will also work well for the Los Angeles court.

3.	Superior Court of Orange County By Katie Tobias, Operations Analyst	A	Does the proposal appropriately address the stated purpose? Yes, the proposal appropriately addresses the stated purpose. Would the proposal provide cost savings? If so, please quantify. No, the proposal does not appear to provide cost savings. What would the implementation requirements be for courts--for example, training staff (please identify position and expected hours of training), revising processes and procedures (please describe), changing docket codes in case management systems, or modifying case management systems? Implementation will require providing communication to judicial officers and court staff, and ensuring Self-Help has access to the revised form. Would two months from Judicial Council approval of this proposal until its effective date provide sufficient time for implementation? Yes, two months would provide sufficient time for implementation in Orange County. How well would this proposal work in courts of different sizes? Our court is a large court, and this could work for Orange County.	The committee appreciates the information provided.
