Executive Summary

The Governing Committee of the Center for Judicial Education and Research (CJER) has completed the final report on its 2016–2018 Education Plan Final Report for the judicial branch (see Attachment A). The education plan, developed by the CJER Governing Committee for all the judicial branch audiences that CJER serves, contains training and education programs and products that enable those audiences to fulfill the education requirements and expectations outlined in rules 10.451–10.491 of the California Rules of Court. This final report provides an overview of the education plan’s execution.

Relevant Previous Council Action

Since 2009, the Governing Committee, working with its nine curriculum committees, has developed an education plan every two years for submission to the Judicial Council. The Judicial Council approved the 2016–2018 Education Plan on June 24, 2016.

Analysis/Rationale

The education plan was developed during months of work conducted by the Governing Committee’s nine curriculum committees and included their prioritized recommendations for fiscal years 2016–17 and 2017–18, with additional analysis on all high-cost education programs. These recommendations were then assessed by staff to determine if funding and staffing resources were sufficient to implement them. Finally, the Governing Committee reviewed, prioritized, and finalized the entire plan. The process has a high degree of transparency and review by judicial officers, as well as court leaders who serve on both the CJER Governing Committee and the CJER curriculum committees.

The curriculum committees reviewed their respective curricula (civil, juvenile, family law, etc.) and determined if there were gaps, and, if so, the content that should be provided and the type of delivery method. The CJER Governing Committee, in reviewing the education recommendations from its nine curriculum committees, considered several alternative content and delivery proposals. When the Governing Committee first met to begin reviewing the 2016–2018 education plan, staff noted that available resources were insufficient to deliver all of the committees' highest priorities. The programs that were unable to be resourced were noted and discussed thoroughly by the Governing Committee, before making determinations regarding priorities.

During the 2016–2018 Education Plan period, CJER staff followed reporting and tracking protocol to confirm that all of the items in the education plan (Attachment A) were being developed and delivered as scheduled and that any deviations from the plan, of either the delivery schedule or the delivery method, were noted, explained, and, where appropriate, brought to the attention of the relevant curriculum committee(s) and the Governing Committee for action.

Summary of findings

In sum, the development and delivery of education for the judicial branch as contained in the 2016–2018 Education Plan was highly successful. The vast majority of all the educational programs and products included in the 2016–2018 plan were delivered on schedule. These products included statewide live events, regional programming, online courses, broadcasts, webinars, podcasts, and CJER's extensive array of legal publications. The 2016–2018 Education Plan demonstrates the accountability and transparency of the development and delivery of education to the audiences within the judicial branch.

Scale of the education plan. Over 300 separate statewide and regional in-person courses and programs for judicial branch audiences were delivered during 2016–2018, along with nearly 40 live distance education events (webinars).

Nearly 100 educational products—including videos, broadcasts, and self-paced online courses—were produced, as well as the updating of 50 self-paced online courses. CJER discontinued the satellite broadcasts of educational videos, moving instead to a lower cost and highly flexible streaming method on CJER Online. Judges and court staff can now watch educational videos, access numerous distance education products, and register for live events on a 24/7 basis on CJER Online.

In 2016, a new, low-cost, highly effective educational delivery method was introduced with CJER Podcasts; nearly 70 new podcasts and podcasts repurposed from videos have been posted.

In addition, CJER updated over 25 judicial publications during this period, and produced over 25 new bench tools and job aids.

The CJER Online website, where judicial branch audiences can find videos, podcasts, self-paced online courses, recorded webinars, job aids and a range of publications, as well as register for upcoming live in-person courses and webinars, has become the most frequently used delivery mechanism for judicial branch education.

Scope of the education plan. The 2016–2018 Education Plan contains an enormous amount of variety in content and subject areas, including the standard programs and products CJER has delivered for many years: the Judicial College, the judicial institutes, the statewide and regional court staff classes, and broadcasts. Using grant funding, a new live judicial program was introduced for experienced judicial officers: the Advanced Judicial Studies Institute, held June 26–28, 2017, in San Diego.

The education plan introduced some new topics, such as “Pretrial Release Considerations After Humphrey,” “Judicial Wellness and Self-Care,” and “Coercion or Motivation: What Really Changes Behavior.” Videos produced during this plan and posted on CJER Online covered a number of timely topics: Succession Planning, Unconscious Bias, PAGA in Employment and Other Cases, and Vicarious Trauma.

For court staff and leadership, education products were delivered on topics such as performance evaluations, surrogacy cases, fostering creativity, and JBSIS reporting. Programs for presiding judges, supervising judges, and court executive officers included topics such as dealing with the media, workforce management, implicit bias, and decisionmaking.

Fiscal Impact and Policy Implications

During the implementation of the plan, completed in July 2018, there was no change in fiscal impact or policy implications since the plan’s approval on June 24, 2016.

Simple Online Courses (Captivate or other technology)			Capacity is approximately 9 per year, but depends on complexity. Capacity could be increased with a reduction in complex HTML course production (Judicial and Administrative Education). Little to no branching and navigation, lower volume of text, less complex content, simple or no video.
