Executive Summary

The Criminal Law Advisory Committee recommends revising the felony plea form to conform to multiple statutory changes that have added or changed relevant sentencing requirements and advisements, and to avoid the use of gendered pronouns.

Recommendation

The Criminal Law Advisory Committee recommends that the Judicial Council, effective January 1, 2021, revise Plea Form, With Explanations and Waiver of Rights—Felony (form CR-101) to:

1. Add references to restitution fines for the revocation of postrelease community supervision and mandatory supervision, to reflect statutory changes to Penal Code section 1202.45;
2. Delete the advisement on narcotics addiction confinement to reflect the repeal of Welfare and Institutions Code sections 3041 and 3201;
3. Revise the provision on imposition of a one-year enhancement of a prison term so that the additional one-year term is imposed solely for each prior separate prison term served for a conviction of a sexually violent offense, to reflect statutory changes to Penal Code section 667.5(b);

4. Delete the requirement for certain defendants to register as narcotics offenders with a local law enforcement agency to reflect the repeal of Health and Safety Code section 11590; and
5. Avoid the use of gendered pronouns.

The revised form is attached at pages 5–11.

Relevant Previous Council Action

The Judicial Council approved for optional use Plea Form, With Explanations and Waiver of Rights—Felony (form CR-101), effective January 1, 2007, to promote increased uniformity in felony plea waiver forms used throughout the state. The form was substantially revised in 2012 in response to criminal justice realignment legislation, and was most recently revised effective January 1, 2020.

Analysis/Rationale

Form CR-101 is designed to include all necessary waivers, a notice of the direct consequences of a plea, and common advisements. However, several bills added or changed relevant sentencing requirements and information, requiring the following proposed form revisions:

- Senate Bill 1210 (Stats. 2012, ch. 762) (see Link A) amended Penal Code section 1202.45 (see Link B) to include restitution fines for the revocation of postrelease community supervision and mandatory supervision. The prior version of the statute addressed parole and probation revocation restitution fines only. The committee recommends revising the provision on parole and probation revocation restitution fines to include references to these additional fines (item 2f of proposed form CR-101).
- Former sections 3051 and 3201 of the Welfare and Institutions Code permitted the sentencing court to order the confinement of a defendant to a narcotic detention, treatment, and rehabilitation facility. Senate Bill 1021 (Stats. 2012, ch. 41) (see Link C) prohibited new confinements as of July 1, 2012, made these two statutes inoperative as of April 1, 2014, and repealed them as of January 1, 2015. The committee recommends deleting the provision on narcotics addiction confinement to reflect the repeal of these code sections.
- Previously, the sentencing court was required to impose a one-year enhancement of a prison term for each prior separate prison term or county jail felony term, except under specified circumstances. Senate Bill 136 (Stats. 2019, ch. 590) (see Link D) amended Penal Code section 667.5(b) (see Link E) so that the additional one-year term is imposed solely for each prior separate prison term served for a conviction of a sexually violent offense. The committee recommends revising the provision on imposition of a one-year enhancement of a prison term to reflect this statutory change (item 3g of proposed form CR-101).

- Former Health and Safety Code section 11590 required certain defendants to register as narcotics offenders with a local law enforcement agency. Assembly Bill 1261 (Stats. 2019, ch. 580) (see Link F) repealed this statute as of January 1, 2020. The committee recommends deleting the requirement for certain defendants to register as narcotics offenders with a local law enforcement agency to reflect the repeal of the code section.
- The committee recommends revising two court findings to avoid the use of gendered pronouns (items 1 and 3 of the court’s findings and orders section of proposed form CR-101).

The revisions are recommended to delete outdated provisions, conform to statutory changes in sentencing, and avoid the use of gendered pronouns.

Policy implications

The revisions are recommended so that the felony plea form reflects existing statutory provisions and is accurate and useful. No further policy implications were discussed by the committee.

Comments

This proposal circulated for comment from April 10 through June 9, 2020, and received comments from two superior courts and one local bar association. All three commenters agreed with the proposal.

Alternatives considered

Given the recent revision of the form, the committee discussed postponing further revisions, but decided to move forward in order to delete outdated provisions and conform the form to statutory changes. The committee also discussed whether to amend the form based on the upcoming change, effective January 1, 2021, to sex offender registration from lifetime to tiered—with mandatory minimum registration periods based largely on the offense—under Senate Bill 384 (Stats. 2017, ch. 541) (see Link G). After discussion, the committee concluded that the existing advisement of lifetime registration would remain appropriate, because the lifetime registration requirement will not automatically terminate when the provisions of SB 384 take effect. Instead, the defendant-petitioner will be required to initiate, and the court to grant, a request for termination.

Fiscal and Operational Impacts

As an optional form, expected costs are limited to training, possible case management system updates, and the production of new forms. No other implementation requirements or operational impacts are expected.

c. Effect of Conviction on Other Cases

I understand that a conviction in this case may constitute a violation of any other current grant of parole, mandatory supervision, postrelease community supervision, or probation in any other case and that I may receive additional punishment as a result of that violation.

d. Registration

I understand that I will be required to register with the local police agency or sheriff's department in the city or county in which I reside as

- (1) ☐ an arson offender (3) ☐ a sex offender (this registration is a lifelong requirement)
- (2) ☐ a gang member (4) ☐ other (specify):

e. Prints and DNA Samples

INITIALS

j. Firearms

I understand that federal and state laws prohibit a convicted felon from possessing firearms or ammunition for life.

k. Other Consequences (specify):4. RIGHT TO AN ATTORNEY

I understand that I have the right to an attorney of my choice to represent me throughout the proceedings. If I cannot afford to hire an attorney, the court will appoint one to represent me.

I hereby give up my right to be represented by an attorney.

5. OTHER CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

I understand that I am entitled to each of the following rights as to the charges listed in item 1 (on page 1):

a. Right to a Jury Trial

I understand that I have a right to a speedy and public jury trial. At the trial, I would be presumed to be innocent, and I could not be convicted unless, after hearing all of the evidence, 12 impartial jurors chosen from the community were unanimously convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that I am guilty. I have a right, through my counsel, to participate in jury selection.

b. Right to a Court Trial

I understand that, as an alternative to a jury trial, if the prosecutor agrees, I may give up a jury trial and have a court trial in which the judge alone, without a jury, hears the evidence. I still could not be convicted unless, after hearing all of the evidence, the judge was convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that I am guilty.

c. Right to Confront and Cross-Examine Witnesses

I understand that I have the right to confront and cross-examine all witnesses testifying against me. This means that the prosecution must produce the witnesses in court, they must testify under oath in my presence, and my attorney may question them.

d. Right to Remain Silent and Not to Incriminate Myself

I understand that I have the right to remain silent, and my silence cannot be considered as evidence against me. I understand that I also have the right not to incriminate myself, and I cannot be forced to testify.

e. Right to Produce Evidence and to Present a Defense

I understand that I have a right to present evidence and to have the court issue subpoenas to bring to court all witnesses and evidence favorable to me, at no cost to me. I also have the right to testify on my own behalf.

Before entering this plea, I have had a full opportunity to discuss the following with my attorney:

I understand that I have the right to have a judge take my plea and sentence me. I give up this right and agree to have a commissioner, sitting as a temporary judge, take my plea and sentence me.

d. Medications or Controlled Substances

I am not taking any medication that affects my ability to understand this form and the consequences of my plea, have not recently consumed any alcohol or drugs, and am not suffering from any medical condition, except for the following:

e. Court Approval of Plea Agreement

I understand that the plea agreement in item 2 (on pages 1 and 2) is based on the facts before the court. I understand that if the court approves this plea agreement the approval of the court is not binding, and that the court may withdraw its approval of the plea agreement upon further consideration of the matter. I understand that if the court withdraws its approval of this plea agreement I will be allowed to withdraw my plea. (Pen. Code, § 1192.5.)

7. STATUTORY RIGHT TO A PRELIMINARY HEARING

I understand that before I have a trial, the law gives me the right to a speedy preliminary hearing at which the prosecution would produce evidence and the court must find reasonable cause to believe I committed the crimes with which I have been charged. I understand that I have all of the above constitutional rights at the preliminary hearing, except for the right to a jury trial.

I give up my right to a preliminary hearing and the constitutional rights listed in item 5 (on page 4).

8. WAIVER OF CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

I give up, for each of the charges and allegations listed in item 1 (on page 1), my right to a jury trial, my right to a court trial, my right to confront and cross-examine witnesses, my right to remain silent and not to incriminate myself, and my right to produce evidence and to present a defense, including my right to testify on my own behalf. I understand that I am, in fact, incriminating myself with my plea.

9. THE PLEA

I freely and voluntarily plead ☐ GUILTY ☐ NO CONTEST to the charges listed in item 1 (on page 1) and admit the allegations listed in item 1 (on page 1), understanding that this plea and admission will lead to the penalties listed in item 2 (on pages 1 and 2).

a. I offer my plea of guilty or no contest freely and voluntarily and with full understanding of everything in this form. No one has made any threats; used any force against me, my family, or my loved ones; or made any promises to me, except as listed in this form, in order to convince me to plead guilty or no contest.

b. I understand that the court is required to find a factual basis for my plea to make sure that I am entering a plea to the proper offenses under the facts of the case.

I offer to the court the following as the basis for my plea of guilty or no contest and any admissions:

(1) I understand that the court may consider the following as proof of the factual basis for my plea:

- (a) ☐ Preliminary hearing transcript
- (b) ☐ Police report
- (c) ☐ Probation report
- (d) ☐ Welfare investigator's declaration
- (e) ☐ Court documents regarding any alleged prior offenses
- (f) ☐ Other (specify):

10. AFTER THE PLEAa. Surrender

I understand that the court is allowing me to surrender at a later date to begin serving time in custody.

I agree that if I fail to appear on the date set for surrender or sentencing without a legal excuse, my plea will become an "open plea" to the court, I will not be allowed to withdraw my plea, and I may be sentenced up to the maximum allowed by law.

b. Sentencing Court

I understand that I have the right to be sentenced by the same judge or commissioner who takes my plea.

I give up that right and agree that any judge or commissioner may sentence me.

c. Sentencing Date

I understand that I have the right to be sentenced within 20 court days. I give up that right and agree to be sentenced at a later date.

11. MANDATORY WARNING

I understand that if I am charged with violating Vehicle Code section 23103, as specified in Vehicle Code section 23103.5, or Vehicle Code sections 23152 or 23153, the following warning applies:

You are hereby advised that being under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both, impairs your ability to safely operate a motor vehicle. Therefore, it is extremely dangerous to human life to drive while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both. If you continue to drive while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both, and as a result of that driving someone is killed, you can be charged with murder.
