Executive Summary

The Rules Committee establishes and maintains the Judicial Council rule-making process and assists the council in making informed decisions about rules of court, forms, standards of judicial administration, and jury instructions. Among other actions, the committee “[r]ecommends whether the council should approve, modify, or reject each proposal.” (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.13(c)(1).)

This report describes the committee’s activities since the November 17, 2023, Judicial Council meeting. These activities include the committee’s consideration of winter cycle invitations to comment, to be circulated through January 19, concerning rules and forms modifications proposed by various advisory committees. They also include the committee’s recommendations for council approval of the rules and forms proposals identified below, two of which are on the council’s consent agenda for the January meeting and two of which have already circulated to the council for action.

Overview of Committee Meetings

Since the council’s last meeting, the Rules Committee has met once by videoconference.

On December 7, 2023, the Rules Committee met by videoconference to consider:

- Three proposals recommended by advisory committees to circulate for comment during the winter cycle:
  - A recommendation from the Appellate Advisory Committee and the Criminal Law Advisory Committee to amend three rules of court and revise three forms to implement the Racial Justice Act, which prohibits the state from seeking or obtaining a conviction or sentence based on race, ethnicity, or national origin.

- Two proposed reports to the Judicial Council with recommendations for new and revised rules and forms:
  - A recommendation from the Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee for Judicial Council approval of revisions to Income Withholding for Support (form FL-195) and Income Withholding for Support—Instructions (form FL-196) as Family Code section 5208 and federal law require that all earnings assignment orders for support be issued using a uniform format prescribed by the Secretary of Health and Human Services.

  - A recommendation from the Civil and Small Claims Advisory Committee and the Appellate Advisory Committee to revise 26 Judicial Council forms to implement statutory changes made by Senate Bill 71 (Stats. 2023, ch. 861), enacted October 13, 2023.
