Executive Summary

Various members of the judicial branch, members of the public, and Judicial Council staff have identified errors in the California Rules of Court and Judicial Council forms, as well as minor changes needed to conform to changes in law or previous council actions. Judicial Council staff recommend making the necessary corrections to ensure that the rules and forms conform to law and to avoid causing confusion for court users, clerks, and judicial officers.

Recommendation

Judicial Council staff recommend that the council, effective July 1, 2026:

1. Amend rules 2.571, 2.1010, 5.605, 5.710, 5.715, 5.720, and 5.812 to update cross-references to Judicial Council forms, other rules, and code sections;
2. Revise Adoption of Indian Child (form ADOPT-220) to correct the title on page 1;

3. Revise Request for Child Custody and Visitation Orders (form DV-105) at item 13 to replace “visits” with “exchanges”;
4. Revise Request to Change or End Restraining Order (form DV-300) at item 4 to correct the attachment number;
5. Revise Emancipation of Minor—Income and Expense Declaration (form EM-115) to reinsert a dash in the title that had been inadvertently deleted;
6. Revise Child Custody and Visitation (Parenting Time) Order Attachment (form FL-341) at item 7 to refer to the optional attachment form and at items 9 and 10 to correct the title of a form used as an attachment;
7. Revise Stipulation and Order for Custody and/or Visitation (Parenting Time) (form FL-355) at item 5 of the court’s findings and orders to correct a typographical error and in the footer on the second page to correct the form number;
8. Revise Notice of Revocation of Joint Petition (form FL-720) to correct the title of forms referenced in the instructions box on page 1 and item 1;
9. Revise Findings and Orders After Dispositional Hearing (form JV-415) at item 2 to correct the heading by replacing “Jurisdictional hearing” with “Dispositional hearing” at items 3 and 7 to restructure the items so that checkboxes precede the text and at item 9 to replace gender-specific language;
10. Revise Complaint—Unlawful Detainer (form UD-100) in item 11 to correct a form title and in items 15, 18, 20g, and 20h to correct the cross-references and attachment numbers;
11. Revise Notice of Hearing on Claim of Exemption (Wage Garnishment—Enforcement of Judgment) (form WG-010/EJ-175) to correct the form name in the form header; and
12. Revise How Can I Respond to a Petition for Workplace Violence Restraining Orders? (form WV-120-INFO) to correct a typographical error by deleting the word “private” as a modifier to “workplace violence restraining orders.”

In addition, minor technical revisions have been made to the forms to reflect current drafting practices. These include, for example, changing the layout of the information in the form footer; correcting punctuation and capitalization; and standardizing the format of webpage addresses, citations to forms and code sections, and text below signature lines.

The text of the amended rules and the revised forms are attached at pages 4–40.

Relevant Previous Council Action

The Judicial Council has acted on these rules and forms previously. This proposal addresses minor corrections of items that were inadvertently or incorrectly included in the prior action.

Analysis/Rationale

The changes to these rules and forms are technical in nature and necessary to correct inadvertent errors or incorrect references. They are needed to ensure that the rules and forms are correct and conform to the law.

Policy implications

There are no policy implications to this proposal.

Comments

Public comments were not solicited for this proposal because the recommendation is within the Judicial Council's purview to approve without circulation.

Alternatives considered

None.

Fiscal and Operational Impacts

Operational impacts are expected to be minor. The proposed revisions may result in reproduction costs if courts provide hard copies of any of the forms recommended for revision. Because the proposed changes are technical corrections, case management systems are unlikely to need updating to implement them.

Child Custody

You can ask a judge to make custody orders for your children. There are two types of custody in California: legal and physical custody. For both types of custody, parents can share custody (joint) or one parent can have full custody (sole).

- Legal custody means the person who makes decisions about the child's health, education, and welfare.
- Physical custody means the person who the child regularly lives with.

Any orders made by the judge now will last until your court date (about three weeks away). On your court date, the judge can change or extend the orders.

Visitation (Parenting Time) with Children

Visitation (parenting time) is the time each parent spends with the child. If a parent does not get custody, that parent can have visits, if a judge believes it is safe and in the child's best interest. Visitation orders a judge can make include:

- No visits
- Virtual or in-person visits
- Visits supervised (monitored) by a third party
- Visits not supervised

Any orders made by the judge now will last until your court date (about three weeks away). On your court date, the judge can change or extend the orders. Answer the questions below to tell the judge what parenting time you want the person in (2) to have until your court date.

10 Do you want the person in (2) to have visits (parenting time) with the children?

(4) Do you want the judge to change the restraining order immediately?

(Usually, a judge makes a decision at a court hearing, when both sides have a chance to speak and give evidence. In some situations, a judge may make orders immediately (1) if you are the protected party and temporary orders are needed for more protection, (2) to prevent immediate harm to a child in this case, or (3) if there is an immediate risk that a child in this case will be taken out of California. If you are the restrained party, the judge cannot end or change the restraining order before the protected party has been properly served with this request and there has been a court hearing on your request.)

In this section, explain why you are asking the judge to change or end the orders.

Check here if there is not enough space for your answer. Attach a sheet of paper and write "Attachment 4, Reasons for Request" for a title.

5 Extend My Deadline to Give Notice to the Other Party

(Usually, the judge will give you about three weeks to serve the other party with your request. If you need more time to serve the other party, the judge may be able to give you more time.)

I ask the judge to give me more time to serve the other party because (explain why you need more time):

6 Lawyer's Fees and Costs

I ask that the other party pay for some or all of my lawyer's fees and costs.

- After you complete this form, complete items 1 and 2 of form DV-310, Notice of Court Hearing and Temporary Order to Change or End Restraining Order.
- File this form and form DV-310 with the court clerk. You must do this before your restraining order expires.
- Once you get your forms back from the court, follow the judge's orders on how to serve the other side (look at form DV-310, item 5). Have an adult (not you or anyone protected by the restraining order) serve the other side with a copy of your forms. You can also ask the sheriff to personally serve the papers, and they will do this for free. See form SER-001, Request for Sheriff to Serve Court Papers. Learn more about service at selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/DV-restraining-order/change-end/serve-request.
- After the other side has been served, have the person who served your papers complete a form and file the completed form with the court:
 - If the papers were personally served, have your server complete form DV-200, Proof of Personal Service.
 - If the papers were served by mail, have your server complete form DV-250, Proof of Service by Mail.
- If you are asking to change child support or spousal support, you must also complete form FL-150, Income and Expense Declaration. If you are only asking for child support, you may be eligible to fill out a simpler form, FL-155, Financial Statement \(Simplified\). Read form DV-570 to see if you are eligible. Before your court date, turn in your completed form to the court and serve a copy on the other party.

FINDINGS AND ORDERS

THE COURT FINDS:

1. This court has jurisdiction over the minor children because California is the children's home state.
2. The habitual residence of the children is the United States of America.
3. The parties have been advised that any violation of this order may result in civil or criminal penalties, or both.
4. The court finds that this order is in the best interests of the child or children listed in the parties' agreement.
5. Even though there are allegations in this case of a history of abuse or substance abuse by a party or parties, the court orders sole custody, joint custody, or unsupervised visitation (parenting time) to a party or parties with an alleged history of abuse or substance abuse, as provided in the parties' stipulation.
 - a. As required by Family Code section 3011(a)(5)(A), the court's reasons for making the orders (check all that apply):
 - (1) Are in writing and filed separately. (Form FL-351 may be used for this purpose.)
 - (2) Were recorded as follows (specify): In a minute order By a court reporter
 Other (specify):
 - b. The court finds that the order is in the best interests of the child and is specific as to time, day, place, and manner of transfer (exchange) of the child, as Family Code sections 3011(a)(5)(A) and 6323(c) require.
6. The court adopts the parties' agreement regarding child custody and/or visitation (parenting time) as the order of the court, as specified in the attached:

Document dated (specify): _____ and consisting of (number): _____ pages or forms:

Form FL-341 Form FL-341(A) Form FL-341(B) Form FL-341(C) Form FL-341(D) Form FL-341(E)

Judicial Officer

Stipulations and Family Code section 3044

Where past abuse has been found or alleged, the court must not sign a stipulation in which the parties state that Family Code section 3044 does not apply. When there has been a finding of domestic violence in the last five years, the court must not sign a stipulation in which the parties agree that the presumptions have been rebutted. The court must independently determine the best interest of the child in these cases.

How Can I Respond to a Petition for Workplace Violence Restraining Orders?

What is a workplace violence restraining order?

It is a court order that prohibits you from doing certain things and going certain places.

What does the order do?

The court can order you to:

- Not contact people who are protected by the order.
- Stay away from people protected by the order and their home, workplace, and other places.
- Not have any firearms (guns), firearm parts, ammunition, or body armor as long as the order is in effect. This includes firearm receivers and frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531).

For more information about the items you would not be allowed to have, please see selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/restraining-orders/prohibited-items.

Who can ask for a workplace violence restraining order?

An employer or collective bargaining representative can ask for an order on behalf of an employee who has suffered harassment, violence, or a credible threat of violence at the workplace, or members of their household or other employees.

I've been served with a petition for workplace violence restraining orders. What do I do now?

Read the papers served on you very carefully. The Notice of Court Hearing tells you when to appear in court. There may also be a Temporary Restraining Order forbidding you from doing certain things. You must obey the order until the hearing.

What if I don't agree with what the order says?

You still must obey the order until the hearing. If you disagree with the orders the person is asking for, fill out form WV-120, Response to Petition for Workplace Violence Restraining Orders, before your hearing date and file it with the court. If you need to include attachments, you can use form MC-025. You can get the forms from legal publishers or from the California Courts website at courts.ca.gov/rules-forms/find-your-court-forms. You also may be able to find them at your local courthouse or county law library.

What if I don't obey the order?

The police can arrest you. You can go to jail and pay a fine.

Do I have to serve the other person with a copy of my response?

Yes. Have someone age 18 or older—not you—mail a copy of completed form WV-120 to the person named in item 1 of the petition form WV-100 (or that person's lawyer). (This is called "service by mail.")

The person who serves the form by mail for you must fill out form WV-250, Proof of Service of Response by Mail. Have the person who did the mailing sign the original. Take the completed form back to the court clerk or bring it with you to the hearing.

Should I go to the court hearing?

Yes. You should go to court on the date listed on form WV-109, Notice of Court Hearing. If you do not go to the hearing, the judge can make orders against you without hearing from you.

WV-109 Notice of Court Hearing Clerk stamps date here when form is filed.

2 Employee Who Petitioner Asserts Suffered Harassment, Violence, or Threat of Violence
 Full Name: _____

3 Respondent (Person From Whom Protection Is Sought)
 Full Name: _____

The court will complete the rest of this form.

4 Notice of Hearing
 A court hearing is scheduled on the request for restraining orders against the respondent:

Name and address of court if different from above:

Hearing Date: _____ Date: _____ Time: _____
 Dept.: _____ Room: _____

- To the person in ③:
- If you attend the hearing (in person, by phone, or by videoconference) and the judge grants a restraining order against you, the order will be effective immediately, and you could be arrested if you violate the order.
 - If you do not attend the hearing, the judge may still grant the restraining order that could last up to three years. After you receive a copy of the order, you could be arrested if you violate the order.

How long does the order last?

If the court issued a temporary restraining order before the hearing, it will last until your hearing date. At that time, the court will decide to continue or cancel the order. Any order issued at the hearing can last for up to three years.

Do I need a lawyer?

Having a lawyer is always a good idea, but it is not required, and you are not entitled to a free, court-appointed attorney. Ask the court clerk about free and low-cost legal services and self-help centers in your county.

Will I see the people to be protected at the court hearing?

Yes. Assume that the people to be protected will attend the hearing. Do not talk to them unless the judge or that person's attorney says that you can.

Can I bring a witness to the court hearing?

Yes. You can bring witnesses or documents that support your case to the hearing. But if possible, you should also bring the witnesses' written statements of what they saw or heard. Their statements must be made under penalty of perjury. You can use form MC-030 for this.

What if I don't speak English?

When you file your papers, ask the clerk if a court interpreter is available. You can also use form INT-300, Request for Interpreter (Civil), or a local court form or website to request an interpreter. For more information about court interpreters, go to selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/request-interpreter.

Information about the process is also available online.

See selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/WV-restraining-order.

For help in your area, contact:

[Local information may be inserted.]

What if I have a firearm (gun), firearm part, or ammunition?

If a restraining order is issued, you cannot own, possess, or have a firearm (gun), firearm parts, ammunition, or body armor while the order is in effect. If you have a firearm (gun), firearm parts, or ammunition, you must sell it to or store it with a licensed gun dealer, or turn it in to a law enforcement agency.

What if I need to have a firearm or ammunition for my job?

If the judge grants a restraining order against you, you cannot have firearms or ammunition. The judge may give you permission to have a firearm or ammunition for work. Before permission can be granted, you will be required to show the judge that (1) carrying a firearm or ammunition is required for your work, and (2) your employer is unable to reassign you to another position where carrying a firearm or ammunition is not necessary. There are other things that you will have to prove. For more information, go to selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/respond-to-WV-restraining-order/obey-firearms-orders/exception, or see Code of Civil Procedure section 527.9(f).

What if I need to have body armor?

If you need to have and use body armor for your work, livelihood, or safety, you may ask for an exception with the chief of police or sheriff and use the body armor (see Penal Code section 31360(c)).

Can I agree with the protected person to cancel the order?

No. Once the order is issued, only the judge can change or cancel it. You or the employer would have to file a request with the court to cancel the order.

What if I have a disability?

If you have a disability and need an accommodation while you are at court, you can use form MC-410, Disability Accommodation Request, to make your request. You can also ask the ADA Coordinator in your court for help. For more information, see form MC-410-INFO, How to Request a Disability Accommodation for Court.
