Executive Summary

The Civil and Small Claims Advisory Committee recommends revisions to two civil harassment restraining order forms to implement Senate Bill 554 (Stats. 2024, ch. 652). The petition (form CH-100) included in this proposal also contains proposed revisions to implement Senate Bill 899 (Stats. 2024, ch. 544).

Recommendation

The Civil and Small Claims Advisory Committee recommends that the Judicial Council, effective January 1, 2026:

- 1. Revise Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Orders (form CH-100) to implement legislation relating to venue in civil harassment restraining order cases (Sen. Bill 544) and to implement legislation relating to firearm and ammunition relinquishment (Sen. Bill 899); and
- 2. Revise Can a Civil Harassment Restraining Order Help Me? (form CH-100-INFO) to reflect SB 544's venue provisions and to specify that a petitioner does not need to be a resident of California to file a petition for a civil harassment restraining order.

The proposed revised forms are included at pages 4–13.

Relevant Previous Council Action

The Judicial Council has adopted forms for use in preventing civil harassment as required by statute. These forms have been revised from time to time to reflect changes in the law and in response to suggestions from the public, judicial officers, and court professionals. These forms were first adopted effective January 1, 1979. The most recent changes went into effect on January 1, 2025, and added body armor prohibitions.

Analysis/Rationale

This proposal is needed to implement SB 544. A separate proposal that is also before the council, Protective Orders: Civil Restraining Order Forms to Implement Senate Bill 899, also affects the civil harassment form group. The proposed form revisions on form CH-100 that are highlighted in yellow relate to SB 554, while the form revisions implementing SB 899 that are the subject of the separate proposal are highlighted in gray.

SB 554 outlines four possible options for venue, only three of which are reflected on form CH-100.³ Therefore, the committee recommends adding another venue option to item 5 explaining that venue is also proper in the county in which the petitioner resides or is temporarily located.⁴ The committee recommends revising form CH-100-INFO to reflect SB 554's venue options and the fact that, under this legislation, a petitioner does not need to reside in California to file a request for a civil harassment restraining order.⁵ Finally, the committee recommends making various technical corrections to the forms and updating gendered language with genderneutral language.⁶

Policy implications

The revised forms in this proposal implement new law enacted by the Legislature. Accordingly, the key policy implications for those changes are ensuring that council forms reflect the law correctly and are not misleading to parties.

Comments

This proposal circulated for public comment from April 14 through May 23, 2025. Four commenters responded to the proposal. Two commenters agreed with the proposal, one agreed if modified, and one did not indicate a position; no commenters disagreed with the proposal. The committee thanks the commenters for taking the time to respond to this proposal. All comments and the committee's responses are provided in the attached chart of comments at pages 14–15.

With respect to the proposed modification, the Joint Rules Subcommittee of the Trial Court Presiding Judges Advisory Committee and the Court Executives Advisory Committee (Joint Rules Subcommittee) suggested revising form CH-100-INFO to expand the description of appropriate filing locations. Code of Civil Procedure section 527.6(a)(2)(D), which was added by SB 554, provides that a petition for a civil harassment restraining order may be filed, among other places, "in any other court that may have jurisdiction over the parties or the subject matter of the case." This is reflected in item 5d of proposed revised form CH-100 as "Other (specify)." However, as noted by the Joint Rules Subcommittee, the committee did not propose similar language for form CH-100-INFO.

In response to this comment, the committee recommends adding, "Another court may also have jurisdiction over your case" to form CH-100-INFO under the heading "What do I need to do to get the order?"

Alternatives considered

The committee did not consider the alternative of taking no action as this would result in forms that do not accurately reflect the amended statute. The committee did not initially propose addressing Code of Civil Procedure section 527.6(a)(2)(D) in form CH-100-INFO. As discussed above, based on the recommendation of the Joint Rules Subcommittee, the committee ultimately determined that form CH-100-INFO should reflect the same information as the venue item of form CH-100. Therefore, the committee now proposes adding, "Another court may also have jurisdiction over your case" to form CH-100-INFO.

Fiscal and Operational Impacts

The impacts from this proposal are the result of legislation. The committee anticipates that this proposal will require courts to train court staff and judicial officers on the revised forms. Courts will also incur costs to incorporate the revised forms into their paper or electronic processes.

Can a Civil Harassment Restraining Order Help Me?

These instructions cannot cover all of the questions that may arise in a particular case. If you do not know what to do to protect your rights, you should see a lawyer.

What is a civil harassment restraining order?

It is a court order that helps protect people from harassment.

Can I get a civil harassment restraining order?

You can ask for one if you are worried about your safety because someone:

- Is harassing you
- Is stalking you
- Has committed acts of violence against you, or
- Has threatened you with violence

You do not need to reside in California to file your request for a civil harassment restraining order.

How will the order help me?

The court can order a person to:

- Not harass or threaten you
- Not contact or go near you, and
- Not have any firearms (guns), firearm parts, ammunition, or body armor. This includes firearm receivers and frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531).

For more information about the items a restrained person cannot have, please see selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/restraining-orders/prohibited-items.

You can also ask for protection for people who live with you and family members.

In a civil harassment case, the court cannot:

- Order a person to move out of your residence
- Order a person to pay child support to you
- Make orders for custody and visitation

If you need these orders, you should proceed under the Domestic Violence Protection Act. File form DV-100.

The court also cannot:

- Order a person to pay money that the person owes you
- Order someone to move out of rental property that you own
- Order someone to stop creating a nuisance that doesn't involve harassment

If you need these remedies, you must file a civil action.

How much does it cost?

That depends on the type of harassment. If the restrained person has used or threatened to use violence against you or has stalked you, you do not have to pay a filing fee; otherwise, you must pay the fee.

If you cannot afford to pay the filing fee, ask the clerk how to apply for a fee waiver. Form FW-001 is available for this purpose.

If the order is based on prior acts of violence, a credible threat of violence, or stalking, you are entitled to free service of the order by a sheriff or marshal. Also, if you are eligible for a fee waiver, you can ask the sheriff or marshal to serve the order for free. If you are not eligible for free service, you may pay the sheriff or marshal to serve the order.

What forms do I need to get the order?

You must fill out all of form CH-100, Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Orders, and form CLETS-001, Confidential CLETS Information. If you need attachments, you may use form MC-025. You must also fill out items 1 and 2 on form CH-109, Notice of Court Hearing, and items 1, 2, and 3 on form CH-110. Temporary Restraining Order (CLETS-TCH).

Where can I get these forms?

You can get the forms from legal publishers or from the California Courts website at courts.ca.gov/rules-forms/find-your-court-forms. You also may be able to find them at your local courthouse or county law library.

What do I need to do to get the order?

You must go to the superior court in the county where the harassment took place, the person to be restrained resides, or you reside or are temporarily located. Another court may also have jurisdiction over your case. At the court, ask where you should file your request for a civil harassment restraining order. (A self-help center or legal aid association may be able to assist you in filing your request.)

At the court, give your forms to the clerk of the court. The clerk will give you a hearing date on the Notice of Court Hearing form, and if your request for immediate orders is granted, a copy of the Temporary Restraining Order signed by a judicial officer.

CH-100-INFO Can a Civil Harassment Restraining Order Help Me?

How soon can I get the order?

If you ask for a temporary restraining order, the court will decide within 24 hours whether or not to make the order. Sometimes the court decides sooner. Ask whether you should wait or come back later to get the signed Notice of Court Hearing and Temporary Restraining Order.

How long does the order last?

If the court makes a temporary order, it will last until your hearing date. At that time, the court will decide to continue or cancel the order. The order could last for up to five years.

How will the person to be restrained know about the order?

Someone age 18 or older—not you or anyone else to be protected by the order—must "serve" (give) the person to be restrained a copy of the order. The server must then fill out form CH-200, Proof of Personal Service, and give it to you to file with the court. For help with service, ask the court clerk for form CH-200-INFO, What Is "Proof of Personal Service"?

What if the restrained person does not obey the order?

Call the police. The restrained person can be arrested and charged with a crime.

Do I have to go to court?

Yes. Go to court on the date the clerk gives you. (See item 3 on form CH-109, Notice of Court Hearing.)

Do I need to bring a witness to the court hearing?

Witnesses are not required, but it helps to have more proof of the harassment than just your word. You can bring:

- Witnesses
- Written statements from witnesses made under oath
- Photos
- Medical or police reports
- Damaged property
- Threatening letters, emails, or telephone messages

The court may or may not let witnesses speak at the hearing. So, if possible, you should bring their written statements under oath to the hearing. (You can use form MC-030, Declaration, for this.)

Do I need a lawyer?

Having a lawyer is always a good idea, but it is not required and you are not entitled to a free, court-appointed lawyer. Ask the court clerk about free and low-cost legal services and self-help centers in your county.

Will I see the restrained person at the court hearing?

If the person comes to the hearing, yes. But that person does not have the right to speak to you. If you are afraid, tell the court officer.

Can I bring someone with me to court?

Yes. You can bring someone to sit with you during the hearing. But that person cannot speak for you in court. Only you or your lawyer (if you have one) can speak for you.

			Time would be needed for the clerk's office to update any forms in office with the revised forms and time would be needed for court tech to make sure correct forms are online. (1 day) No changes in the case management system would be needed.

4.	Trial Court Presiding Judges Advisory Committee (TCPJAC)	AM	The JRS notes that the proposal is required to conform to a change of law.	No response required.
	and the Court Executives Advisory Committee (CEAC) (TCPJAC/CEAC Joint Rules		The JRS also notes the following impact to court operations: • Impact on existing automated systems.	The committee appreciates the response.
	Subcommittee (JRS))		Suggested modification(s): Fails to fully incorporate SB 554 in the CH-100-INFO. The section "What do I need to get the order?" appears to be too narrow. See: CCP 527.6(a)(2)(D). This is incorporated into the CH-100 form in Section 5d under "Other (specify):"	The committee recommends adding "Another court may also have jurisdiction over your case." to form CH-100-INFO on page 1 under "What do I need to do to get the order?" to communicate that another court "may have jurisdiction over the parties or the subject matter of the case." (Code Civ. Proc., § 527.6(a)(2)(D).)
