Executive Summary

Legal Services recommends that the Judicial Council approve the report Jobs and Economic Improvement Through Environmental Leadership Act: Report to the Legislature under Assembly Bill 900, Public Resources Code Section 21189.2, and direct staff to transmit it to the Legislature. Doing so fulfills the requirements of Public Resources Code section 21189.2, which requires the Judicial Council to report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 2017, on the effects of the Jobs and Economic Improvement Through Environmental Leadership Act on the administration of justice.

Recommendation

Legal Services recommends that the Judicial Council approve the report Jobs and Economic Improvement Through Environmental Leadership Act: Report to the Legislature under Assembly Bill 900, Public Resources Code Section 21189.2 (Attachment A), and direct staff to transmit it to the Legislature.

Previous Council Action

The Judicial Council has not previously reported on the effects of the Jobs and Economic Improvement Through Environmental Leadership Act (the Act). However, as required by the Act, the Judicial Council adopted rules to implement the Act effective July 1, 2014 (see California Rules of Court, rules 3.1365, 3.2220–3.2231, and 8.700–8.705).

Rationale for Recommendation

Approval of this report for transmittal to the Legislature will comply with the mandate of Public Resources Code section 21189.2 to report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 2017, on the effects of the Act on the administration of justice. Because there has been only one case subject to the requirements of the Act, the report does not draw any general conclusions about the impact of the Act on the administration of justice. However, the report does provide information about the processing of the one case filed under the Act.

Comments, Alternatives Considered, and Policy Implications

This report is legislatively mandated, so no alternatives were considered and no comment period was required.

Implementation Requirements, Costs, and Operational Impacts

The submission of this report to the Legislature carries no implementation requirements or costs for the courts.

Jobs and Economic Improvement Through Environmental Leadership Act

REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE UNDER ASSEMBLY BILL 900, PUBLIC
RESOURCES CODE SECTION 21189.2

DECEMBER 1, 2016

Background

In September 2011, the Legislature enacted and the Governor signed into law Assembly Bill 900 (Buchanan and Gordon), the Jobs and Economic Improvement Through Environmental Leadership Act of 2011.¹ (hereafter referred to as the Act). This act added new chapter 6.5—comprising sections 21178–21189.3—to division 13 of the Public Resources Code,² the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA). This new chapter established an expedited procedure for judicial review of certain CEQA claims regarding projects that the Governor certifies as “environmental leadership development projects.” Among other things, this act:

- Required that actions or proceedings alleging that a public agency has approved or is undertaking such a leadership project in violation of CEQA be filed in the Court of Appeal with geographic jurisdiction over the project (section 21185(a)(1));
- Required the Court of Appeal to issue its decision in the case within 175 days of the filing of the petition (section 21185(a)(3));
- Required the Judicial Council to adopt rules of court to implement this new chapter (section 21185(b)); and
- Required the Judicial Council to report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 2015, on the effects of this chapter (section 21189.2).

In March 2013, however, following a court trial, the Alameda County Superior Court held that the provision in the Act requiring that a petition for writ relief be filed only in a Court of Appeal was unconstitutional. In September 2013, the Legislature enacted and the Governor signed into law Senate Bill 743 (Steinberg),³ which, among other things,⁴ amended the Act to:

- Eliminate the requirement that a CEQA challenge to a leadership project be filed in the Court of Appeal; and
- Replaced the statutory provisions relating to the time for the Court of Appeal to act on leadership cases with a requirement that the Judicial Council adopt rules that require the actions or proceedings, including any potential appeals therefrom, be resolved within 270 days of certification of the record of proceedings (section 21185).

Effective January 1, 2015, as part of the civil law omnibus bill,⁵ the Legislature amended section 21189.2 to extend the deadline for the Judicial Council to report on the effect of the Act to January 1, 2017, and to clarify that the report should address the effects of the Act on the administration of justice.

² Unless otherwise indicated, all subsequent references are to the Public Resources Code.

³ Stats. 2013, ch. 386.

⁴ The bill also contained provisions establishing expedited review for projects relating to a new basketball arena and surrounding sports and entertainment complex planned for Sacramento and some amendments to substantive CEQA provisions.

⁵ Assem. Bill 2747 (Stats. 2014, ch. 913).

Effective August 26, 2016, the Legislature amended section 21189.3 to extend the sunset on the Act until January 1, 2019.⁶ However, the Legislature did not further extend the deadline for the Judicial Council report on the Act.

To date, the Governor's office has received applications to certify seven projects as environmental leadership development projects under the act and the Governor has certified six of these projects.⁷

Summary of Available Information Regarding Impact of the Act on the Administration of Justice

To date, only one project certified by the Governor as an environmental leadership development project has resulted in a court case subject to the requirements of the Act: the Event Center and Mixed-Use Development at Mission Bay Blocks 29–32 project (hereafter the Mission Bay project). This project would develop these blocks in the Mission Bay area of San Francisco into a multipurpose event center, including an 18,064-seat arena for the Golden State Warriors basketball team and office, retail, open space, and structured parking.

This report provides information about the processing of that case. However, because there has been only this one case subject to the requirements of the Act, at this time the Judicial Council is unable to draw any general conclusions about the impact of the Act on the administration of justice.

Timeline

The original petition challenging the approval of the Mission Bay project was filed on January 7, 2016.⁸ On November 29, 2016, the Court of Appeal, First Appellate District issued its decision in this case.⁹ Thus a total of 327 days elapsed between the initial filing of the petition challenging the project and the issuance of the Court of Appeal decision. However, as explained in more detail below, 64 of those days were consumed in addressing a dispute about the proper trial court to hear the initial petition. During the 327 day period, four courts considered the challenge to this project filed under the Act. A brief timeline of the main court actions in this case is set out below. Dockets from each of the four courts showing the activities in this case are attached as Exhibits A through D:

⁷ A list of these projects is available at www.opr.ca.gov/s_californiajobs.php.

⁸ Although under the Act the 270-day period for the superior courts and the Courts of Appeal to resolve a case begins to run from the certification of the administrative record, because of circumstances in this particular case, this report measures the elapsed time from the filing of the petition. The Act requires that the lead agency for the project prepare the administrative record concurrently with the administrative process and certify the final administrative record within five days of its approval of the project (section 21186(a) & (h)). However, the petitioners filed a notice with their petition on January 7, 2016, indicating that they had elected to prepare the administrative record because the respondent had not complied with the record preparation requirements of the Act.

- On January 7, 2016,¹⁰ Mission Bay Alliance and Jennifer Wade (the petitioners) filed an action in Sacramento County Superior Court against the City and County of San Francisco and the Office of Community Investment and Infrastructure (the respondents) challenging the respondents' compliance with CEQA and the Mission Bay South Redevelopment Plan in connection with the respondents' approval of the Mission Bay project (the CEQA case).¹¹
- On January 14, the Golden State Warriors (the real party in interest) moved for a change of venue of the CEQA case to San Francisco. On February 3, the Sacramento County Superior Court granted this request and issued notice of entry of this order.
- On February 9, the case was initially transferred to San Francisco County Superior Court. However, this transfer was subsequently recalled because on February 22, the petitioners filed a petition for a writ of mandate in the Court of Appeal, Third Appellate District, challenging the change of venue to San Francisco County Superior Court.
- On February 26, the petitioners also filed an action in San Francisco County Superior Court challenging four local approvals granted by the City and County of San Francisco in connection with the Mission Bay project and seeking to enjoin construction of the project (the local approvals case).¹²
- On March 3, the Court of Appeal denied the petitioners' petition for a writ of mandate challenging the change of venue to San Francisco County Superior Court.¹³ This order was entered on March 4. A copy of the docket showing the Court of Appeal, Third Appellate District's activities in the CEQA case is attached as Exhibit A.
- On March 8, the Sacramento County Superior Court transferred the CEQA case and the record in that case to the San Francisco County Superior Court. A copy of the docket from the Sacramento County Superior Court showing that court's activities in the CEQA case is attached as Exhibit B.
- On March 11, 64 days after it was initially filed in Sacramento County Superior Court, the CEQA case was received and filed in San Francisco County Superior Court.¹⁴
- On April 25, the San Francisco County Superior Court ordered the consolidation of the CEQA and the local approvals cases regarding the Mission Bay project.

¹⁰ All subsequent dates are in 2016 unless otherwise noted.

¹¹ Sacramento County Superior Court case No. 34-2016-80002271.

¹² San Francisco County Superior Court case No. CPF-16-514811.

¹³ Court of Appeal, Third Appellate District, case No. C081342.

¹⁴ San Francisco County Superior Court case No. CPF-16-514892.

- On June 17, the San Francisco County Superior Court heard argument from eight lawyers (four per side) on the merits of the CEQA petition for writ of mandate and the local approvals case. During the 98-day period leading up to this hearing, the court also reviewed the voluminous record and filings in the case, conducted legal research, held several mandatory settlement conferences, and handled various ex parte requests regarding these proceedings.
- On July 18, 129 days after the CEQA case was filed in San Francisco County Superior Court and 193 days after the case was initially filed in Sacramento County Superior Court, the San Francisco court entered judgment in favor of respondent and real parties in interest, upholding the approval of the Mission Bay project. Notice of entry of this judgment was filed on July 19. A copy of the docket showing the San Francisco court's activities in the CEQA case is attached as Exhibit C.
- On July 25, the petitioners filed a notice of appeal in the CEQA case and on July 26, this notice of appeal was received by the Court of Appeal, First Appellate District.¹⁵
- By August 29, the Court of Appeal had received the complete record in the case. The administrative record was received on August 1, the joint appendix on August 23, and the exhibits on August 29.
- On October 4, 71 days after the filing of the notice of appeal, the parties completed their regular briefing. By this date, however, before the Court of Appeal had the opportunity to read and consider these the briefs or hold oral argument, 270 days had already elapsed since the initial filing of the case in Sacramento County Superior Court.
- In addition to this regular briefing, the Court of Appeal has also received briefs from amicus curiae. Party responses to these amicus briefs were completed on October 24. In response to a target letter issued by the court on October 20 to focus the oral argument, the parties also asked to submit supplemental briefing. These supplemental briefs were filed on November 2.
- Oral argument was held in the case on November 16, 114 days after the notice of appeal was filed and 314 days after the petition was initially filed in Sacramento County Superior Court.
- On November 29, 2016, 127 days after the notice of appeal was filed and 327 days after the petition was initially filed, the Court of Appeal, issued its decision in this case.¹⁶ The Court of Appeal affirmed the decision of the San Francisco Superior Court in favor of respondent and real parties in interest, upholding the approval of the Mission Bay project. A copy of the docket showing the Court of Appeal, First Appellate District's activities in the CEQA case to date is attached as Exhibit D.

¹⁵ Court of Appeal, First Appellate District, case No. A148865.

¹⁶ Mission Bay Alliance et al. v. Office of Community Investment and Infrastructure (OCII) et al. (July 25, 2016, A148865) ___ Cal.App.5th ___ 2016 WL 6962504

Court Resources

The Mission Bay project CEQA case is extremely large and complex. The administrative record filed in both the trial court and the Court of Appeal comprises 56 volumes—more than 168,000 pages. The joint appendix filed in the Court of Appeal is 1,514 pages in length. The petitioners' petition for writ of mandate filed in the trial court included three separate causes of action raising multiple issues regarding the approval of the Mission Bay project. The petitioners' brief filed in the Court of Appeal, First Appellate District also raised multiple issues. Many of the issues raised in this case involve highly technical questions that require specialized expertise to evaluate.

To appropriately address this large, complex case within the time frame set by the Act, both the trial and appellate courts devoted more resources to this case than these courts are normally able to devote to a single case:

- At the San Francisco County Superior Court, both the trial judge and the research attorney assigned to this case devoted more hours per day to this case than for other cases, including other complex cases that involve the management of a regularly assigned law and motion calendar, informal discovery dispute meetings, ex parte requests, and oversight over mandatory settlement conference proceedings. The judge estimated the additional time to be four to five hours per day during the week and significant time over the weekends. In addition to the judge and research attorney, another attorney—the court's settlement officer—was also assigned to assist with this case; and
- At the Court of Appeal, First Appellate District, the case has taken precedence over all other cases assigned to the division handling this case, including juvenile dependency cases. The court assigned two research attorneys to work on this case, rather than the usual single attorney. As of the time the opinion was filed, it is anticipated these attorneys will have worked on this case essentially on a full-time basis for a total of three months, which is not typical. The court has also specially set this case for oral argument to provide the parties with additional time for their oral argument.

The special fee for the Court of Appeal under the Act provides some additional resources to offset the cost of handling this case at that court. No such additional resources were available to the trial courts.

10/20/2016	Letter sent to counsel re:	MEMORANDUM TO COUNSEL Re: A148865 - Mission Bay Alliance v. OCII At oral argument, in addition to any other issues the parties wish to address, the parties should be prepared to address the following: (1) Respondents contend the substantial evidence standard applies because the proposed event center is consistent with the 1998 Mission Bay FSEIR and Mission Bay South redevelopment plan. (RB 44-46.) Do the facts support a finding of consistency here? (Pub. Resources Code, § 21094, subd. (c).) Is the event center truly consistent with the 1998 FSEIR, which did not contemplate a sports arena in the area? (AR 13018.) If the event center is not consistent with the 1998 FSEIR, does the fair argument standard apply? (Friends of Mammoth v. Town of Mammoth Lakes Redevelopment Agency (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 511, 528-529; Sierra Club v. County of Sonoma (1992) 6 Cal.App.4th 1307, 1321.) (2) Respondents state that the discussion of land use impacts in the initial study "tracks Guidelines Appendix G, section X." (RB 47.) The initial study evaluates potential impacts "upon the existing character of the vicinity." (AR 1719-1721.) Did OCII tailor the Appendix G checklist to its own needs? (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 14, § 15063, subd. (f); Appendix G, § X.) Is petitioners' challenge to OCII's finding concerning the existing character of the vicinity affected by the absence of the criterion from Appendix G? (3) What evidence supports the finding in the initial study that the proposed event center will not have a substantial impact upon the existing character of the vicinity? (AR 1719-1722.) The initial study states, concerning land use, while "entertainment use was addressed in the FSEIR, the size and intensity of the event center use was not previously analyzed. [¶] Once completed, the proposed project would function as a destination site, with an intensification of use during events. Attendance at these events would alter the overall land use character of the project site from that analyzed in the FSEIR." (AR 1720.) Given the admitted alteration in land use from that analyzed in the prior EIR, was supplemental review required? (4) What evidence supports the initial study's conclusion that the proposed 488, 000-square-foot, 18, 500-seat arena (AR 862) constitutes no more than the nighttime entertainment use contemplated in the 1998 FSEIR? The only "entertainment-oriented commercial use" explicitly stated in the prior EIR is a 56, 000-square-foot area associated with a hotel planned for the area. (AR 13018, 13068.) Nighttime entertainment is listed as a secondary use and defined in the Mission Bay South redevelopment plan as "dance halls, discotheques, nightclubs, private clubs, and other similar evening-oriented entertainment activities." (AR 15402, 15408-15409, 15444.) Is a sports arena comparable to a nightclub or the other listed entertainment activities? (5) The initial study concluded that the proposed event center would not create adverse land use impacts beyond those studied in the 1998 FSEIR, and that the impacts of the event center on transportation, noise and air emissions would be addressed in the event center's EIR. (AR 1720.) If we conclude there is no substantial evidence to show that the project will have no significant additional impact on the existing character of the vicinity, so that land use should not have been scoped out of the FSEIR, was the substance of land use nonetheless covered by the subjects that were addressed in the FSEIR? What additional issues, if any, should have been but were not studied in the FSEIR? (6) In what way, if any, do the performance standards in the Transportation Management Plan ensure elimination or reduction of unreasonable delays in boarding and overcrowding on regional transit carriers following large events? (7) CEQA Guidelines permit an agency to "use a methodology to quantify greenhouse gas emissions resulting from a project" or to rely on "performance based standards" but also state that an agency should "describe, calculate or estimate the amount of greenhouse gas emissions." (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 14, § 15064, subd. (a).) Do the Guidelines compel a numerical calculation of a project's greenhouse gas emissions or does an agency have discretion to determine that quantification would not assist in analyzing the significance of the emissions and to rely entirely on performance based standards? (See Center for Biological Diversity v. Dept. of Fire & Wildlife (2015) 62 Cal.4th 204, 220-221.) (8) The Bay Area Air Quality Management District (BAAQMD) 2012 Air Quality Guidelines refer agencies to

		"a number of resources" in determining appropriate air quality thresholds for toxic air contaminants (TACs). Those resources include differing standards set forth in 2009 BAAQMD guidelines and federal Environmental Protection Agency rulings. Is there scientific consensus on the appropriate threshold of significance for TACs? If not, did the city abuse its discretion in selecting the appropriate threshold utilized in the FSEIR? (9) Did the FSEIR apply scientifically outdated breathing rates in assessing health risks to children from the project's TAC emissions? Would application of the higher rate advocated by petitioners increase a child resident's cancer risk beyond the threshold of significance utilized in the FSEIR? (AOB 63, fn. 24.)
