Executive Summary

The Probate and Mental Health Advisory Committee recommends revising two forms used in proceedings for the summary disposition of property in estates of small value. Effective April 1, 2022, and without circulation for comment, the Judicial Council adopted one form and revised three forms, including the two in this report, to comply with a statutory mandate to adjust dollar amounts related to small estate disposition and to publish the adjusted amounts. Having circulated the forms for comment, the committee now recommends these revisions.

Recommendation

The Probate and Mental Health Advisory Committee recommends that the Judicial Council, effective January 1, 2023:

1. Revise Affidavit re: Real Property of Small Value (form DE-305) to clarify that the declarant must attach form DE-300 to the affidavit if the decedent died on or after April 1, 2022; and
2. Revise Petition to Determine Succession to Real Property (form DE-310) to clarify that the declarant must attach form DE-300 to the petition if the decedent died on or after April 1, 2022, and to make technical changes to improve usability.

The proposed revised forms are attached at pages 5–8.

Relevant Previous Council Action

Effective April 1, 2022, the Judicial Council adopted form DE-300 and revised forms DE-305, DE-310, and DE-315 to implement a mandate in Probate Code section 890 to determine and publish adjusted amounts for use in determining the eligibility of property and decedents' estates for summary disposition procedures.¹ The recommendation was adopted without circulation for comment because the time between the publication of the December 2021 Consumer Price Index data, which were needed to calculate the adjustments, and the effective date of the required adjustment based on that data was too short to allow for circulation.

Analysis/Rationale

The Judicial Council adopted form DE-300 for mandatory use and revised forms DE-305, DE-310, and DE-315 to fulfill the mandate in Probate Code section 890.² That statute requires the Judicial Council, on April 1, 2022, and at each three-year interval thereafter, to adjust the dollar amounts specified in chapter 6 (commencing with section 6600) of part 3 of division 6 and in division 8 (commencing with section 13000) of the Probate Code in effect immediately before that date. These amounts set upper limits on the property values that determine eligibility for disposition of small estates without full probate administration.

The statute requires the council to determine the amount of each required adjustment based on the change in the United States city average of the “Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers” from the December “40 months prior to the adjustment” (this year, December 2018) to “the December immediately preceding the adjustment” (this year, December 2021) and to round each adjusted amount to the nearest $25.³ The council must also, as of April 1 of each year in which an adjustment is required, publish a list of the adjusted values and the date of the next scheduled adjustment.⁴ Form DE-300, adopted by the Judicial Council effective April 1, 2022, fulfills the publication mandate by listing each code section that specifies a maximum value, briefly describing the property to which that section applies, listing the adjusted value for that section, and giving the date of the next scheduled adjustment.

Sections 13101, 13152, 13200, and 13601, which specify procedures for disposition of specific types of property in small estates without full probate administration, also require an affiant, declarant, or petitioner who seeks to use the procedure authorized by any of those sections to attach the published list to the affidavit or petition.⁵ For this reason, the council adopted form DE-300 for mandatory use.

Policy implications

The committee's recommended revisions are intended to improve the quality of justice and service to the public by clarifying the requirements for completing and filing forms DE-305 and DE-310. No policy implications contributed to controversy or intense debate in the committee.

Comments

The proposal was circulated for public comment in the spring 2022 invitation-to-comment period. Two commenters, the Orange County Bar Association and the Superior Court of San Diego County, responded. Both commenters agreed with the proposal and suggested modifications. Based on these suggestions, the committee recommends revising item 4 on form DE-305 and item 8 on form DE-310 to distinguish more clearly the alternative dollar amounts and, as suggested by the Superior Court of San Diego County, to indicate that form DE-300 must be attached to form DE-305 or DE-310 if the decedent died on or after April 1, 2022.⁶ These revisions will give declarants and petitioners better notice of the requirement to attach form DE-300 in appropriate cases.

The San Diego court also noted a lack of clarity regarding how to enforce the requirement to attach form DE-300 to an affidavit or declaration under section 13101 (to collect money, tangible personal property, or evidence of intangible personal property) or section 13601 (to collect compensation owed to a decedent). Such an affidavit requires submission to the holder of the property to which the affiant is claiming succession or the decedent's employer, respectively, but does not require filing with the court or any court supervision or other involvement. Under the statutory scheme at issue, succession to personal property or collection of compensation owed to an estate is a private transaction. The enforcement of the attachment requirement is left to the property holder or the employer. The Judicial Council's purview extends only to rules and forms for judicial administration, practice, and procedure.

The Orange County Bar Association suggested that forms DE-305, DE-310, and DE-315 be revised to include a reference to the date of the next required scheduled adjustment to the values specified in those forms. The committee declined to make these suggested changes because, as required by Probate Code section 890(c), form DE-300, which must be attached to forms DE-305 and DE-310, already includes the date of the next scheduled adjustment.

⁶ Section 13200(f) requires the list of adjusted dollar amounts, that is, form DE-300, to be attached to an affidavit or declaration claiming succession of a decedent who died on or after April 1, 2022, to a particular item of real property. The council adopted form DE-305 to serve as that affidavit or declaration. Section 13152(f)(2) imposes an analogous requirement on a petition for a judicial determination that the petitioner has succeeded to a particular item of real property. The council has adopted form DE-310 to serve as that petition.

A chart of comments is attached at pages 9–12.

Alternatives considered

The committee considered not revising the forms to avoid costs to courts and litigants, but determined that the two revisions recommended would not impose significant costs on courts and would likely reduce delays by leading more litigants to attach form DE-300 to their initial filings.

Fiscal and Operational Impacts

Courts will need to replace paper copies of existing forms DE-305 and DE-310. The revisions should save costs and time for litigants by reducing the number of forms filed without the required attachment.

1.	Orange County Bar Association by Daniel S. Robinson, President Newport Beach	AM	The OCBA agrees that this proposal appropriately addresses the stated purpose if it is modified as follows: (1) Attachment “A” should be attached and referenced as part of the Form DE-300 “Maximum Values” chart; it is a useful explanation for determination of values. (2) On Form DE-305 “Affidavit re Real Property of Small Estate” a reference should be made at paragraph 4 that the amount of $61,500 is to be adjusted in Probate Code §890 in the same manner as referenced on Form DE-300. (3) On Form DE-305 add at paragraph 10 after the words - “(Attach a copy of the will)” in parentheses the phrase - “if you claim under the will and no estate proceeding is pending or has been conducted in California).”	The committee does not recommend the suggested change. Attachment to form DE-300 could mislead some form users to think that they were required or authorized to perform a calculation. They are not. The Judicial Council is required by statute to perform those calculations. Form DE-300 shows the results. Attachment A, which explains the basis of the council’s calculation, is attached to the report adopted by the council at its March 11, 2022, meeting. The report is available on the California Courts website as item 22-079 on the public agenda for that meeting. The committee does not recommend the suggested change. Probate Code section 890(c) requires that the list of the adjusted amounts include the date of the next scheduled adjustment. The Judicial Council has adopted form DE-300 as the list of the adjusted amounts. That form, which must be attached to form DE-305 when the latter is filed, gives April 1, 2025, as the date of the next scheduled adjustment. No additional reference on form DE-305 to the next adjustment is necessary or appropriate. The committee does not recommend the suggested change. Item 8 provides the information necessary to comply with the requirement in Probate Code section 13200(a)(7) that the affidavit or declaration state either that “[n]o proceeding for

		What would the implementation requirements be for courts—for example, training staff (please identify position and expected hours of training), revising processes and procedures (please describe), changing docket codes in case management systems, or modifying case management systems? Minimal staff training. Clerical, Examiners, and Judges to be informed of new dollar amounts and be made aware of the new and revised forms. Q: How well would this proposal work in courts of different sizes? It appears this proposal would work similarly among courts of all sizes. Other Comments: It is not entirely clear that the new form, DE-300, must be attached to certain affidavits/petitions unless specifically looking at DE-300. It would be helpful to either add this form as a Page-3 to DE-305 and DE-310 or add a checkbox or bullet point that prompts the filer to include the new attachment. See suggestions below. 			DE-310 – Petition to Determine Succession to Real Property 8. b. [] The decedent died on or after April 1, 2022. Judicial Council form, DE-300, Maximum Values for Small Estates Set-Aside& Disposition of Estate Without Administration is attached. It is also unclear how this requirement would be enforced on non-court supervised proceedings, such as an affidavit under probate code section 13100 or 13601.	The committee acknowledges that the statutory scheme leaves a putative successor's compliance with the attachment requirement in a collection or transfer under section 13101 or 13601 to the vigilance of the holder of the property claimed or the employer. In this respect, enforcement of that requirement is no different from enforcement of any of the other content requirements in those sections. Because the statutes do not call on the court to enforce these requirements, developing forms for that purpose is beyond the scope of the Judicial Council's purview.
