

Use of Remote Technology in Civil and Criminal Actions by the Trial Courts

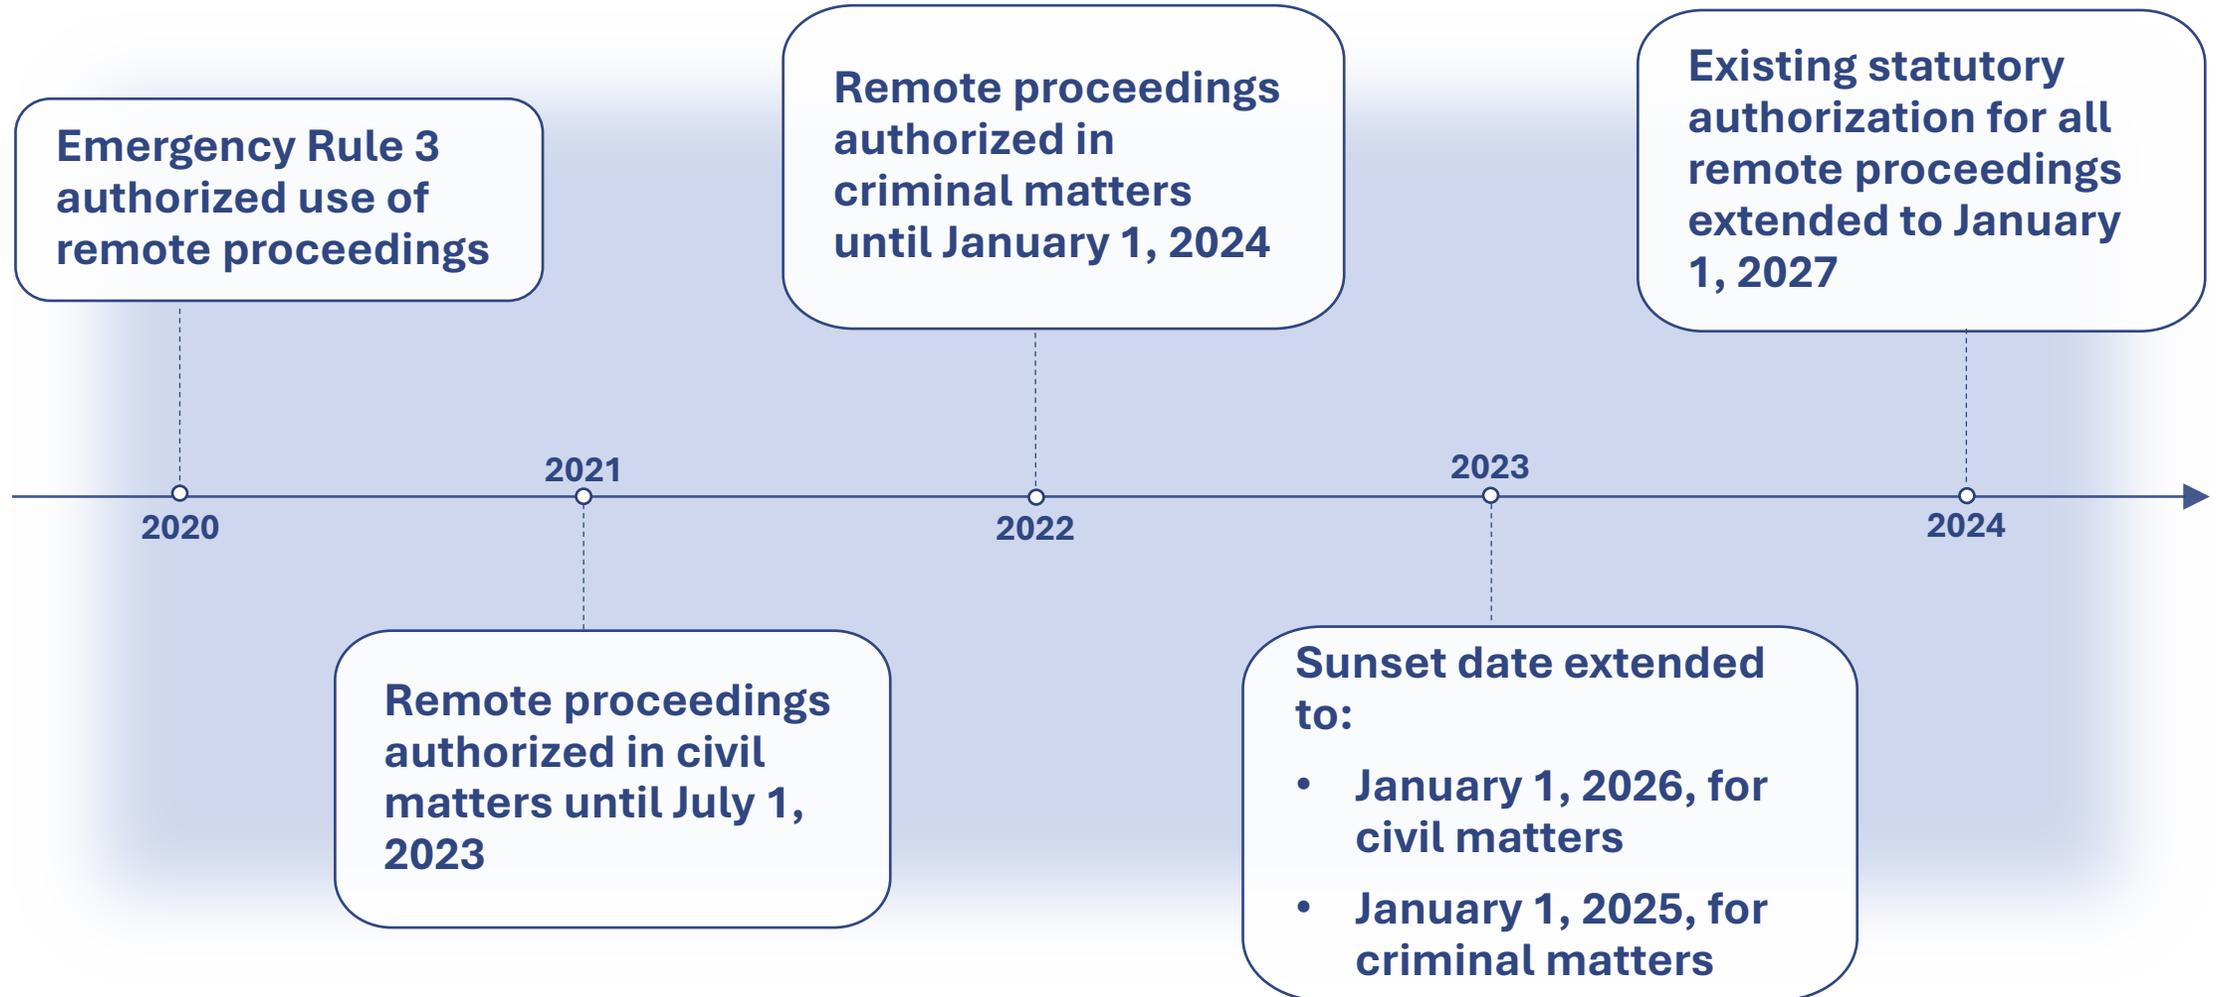

Hon. Lisa Rodriguez, Chair, Criminal Law Advisory Committee

Ms. Julia Hanagan, Member, Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee

Ms. Jessica Devencenzi, Policy & Research

February 20, 2026

Remote Proceedings: History

Remote Proceedings: A Widespread Practice

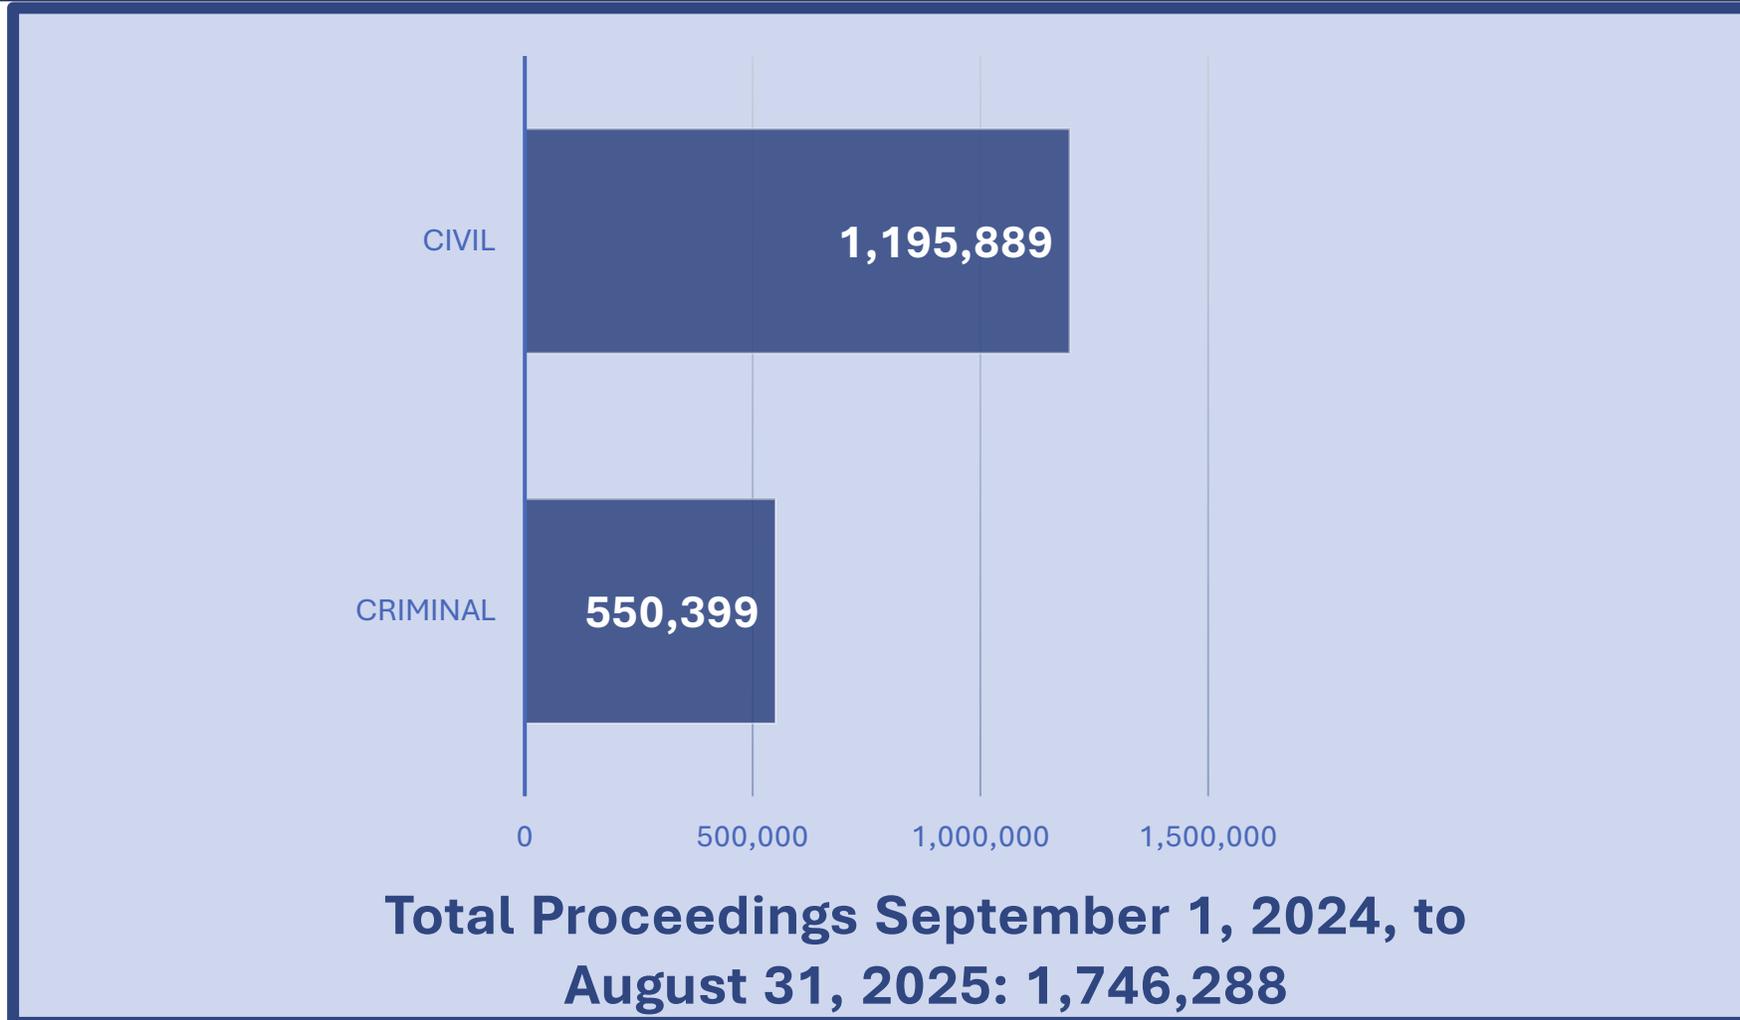

6,003,728

Number of remote proceedings held since March 2022

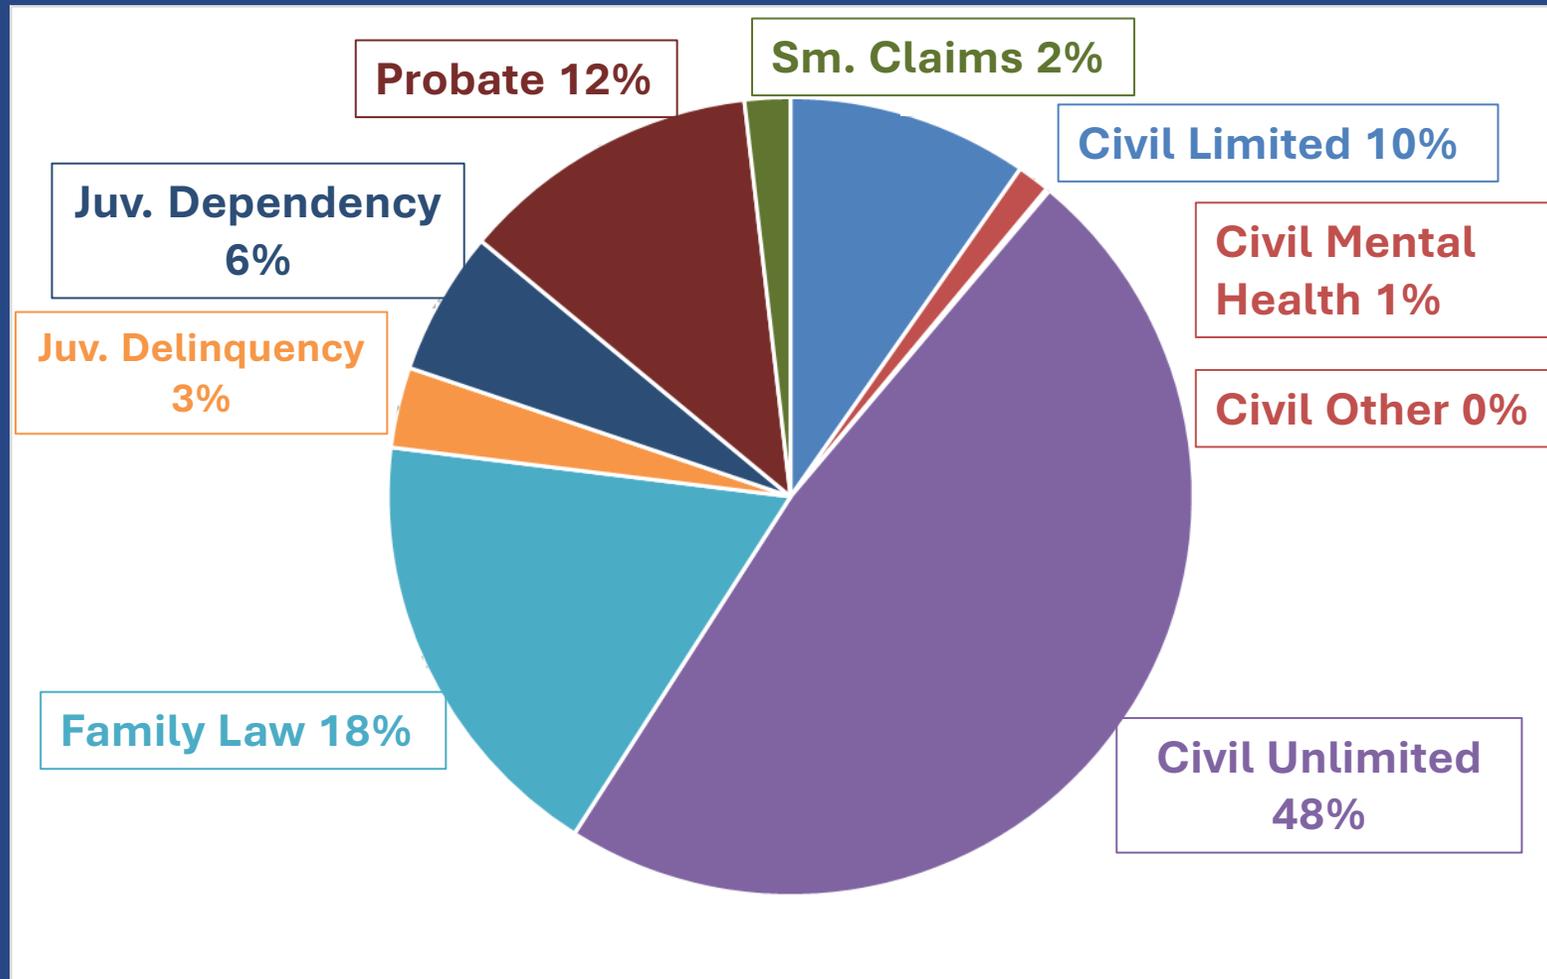

7,098

Average number of remote proceedings held daily in California courts

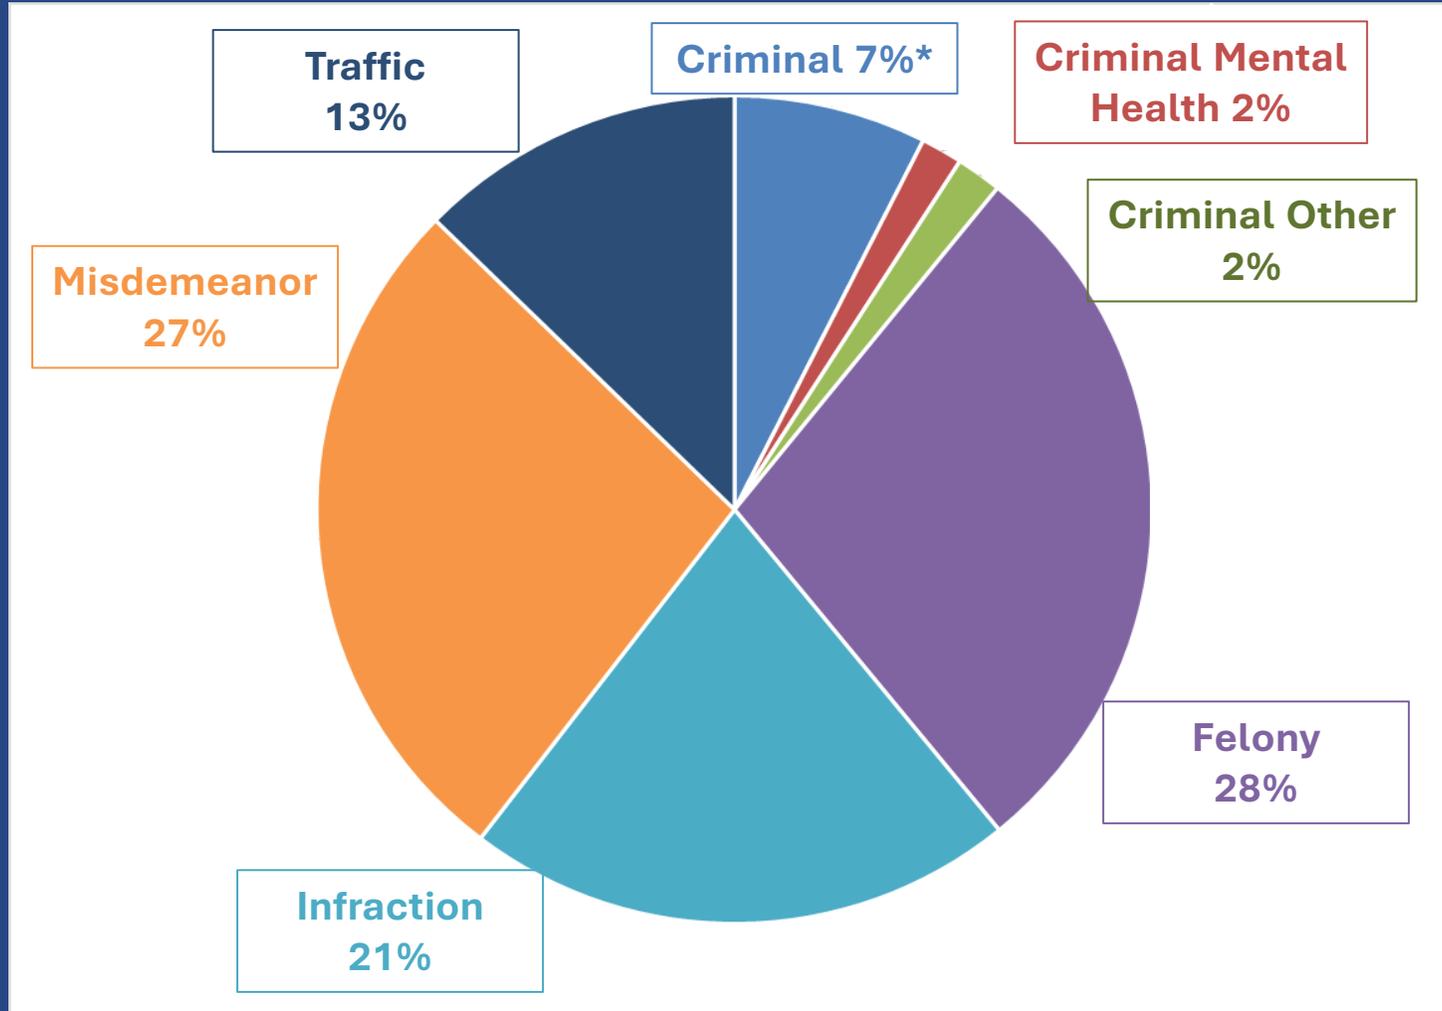

Remote Proceedings: The Numbers

Remote Proceedings: Civil Case Type Analysis

Remote Proceedings: Criminal Case Type Analysis

*refers to data on remote criminal proceedings carried out in the Superior Court of California, Los Angeles County during the reporting period; they did not disaggregate their data beyond the general criminal case type during this reporting period.

Remote Proceedings: User Impact

95%

Number of users reporting a positive experience with remote technology*

6,276

Number of surveyed users in Los Angeles who reported saving time and money on transportation in an eight-month period

3,932

Number of surveyed users in Los Angeles who reported not having to miss work to attend a hearing in an eight-month period

*does not include data from Los Angeles.

Use of Remote Technology in Dependency Court

- Ms. Julia Hanagan, Member, Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee

Use of Remote Technology in Criminal Court

- Hon. Lisa Rodriguez, Chair, Criminal Law Advisory Committee

Questions