Executive Summary

Judicial Council staff recommend the revision of four Judicial Council forms containing figures based on the federal poverty guidelines to reflect the changes in those guidelines recently published by the federal government. The revised poverty guidelines take effect immediately on release. The revised forms will ensure that litigants and courts are provided with accurate monthly income guidelines on which a court may base a decision regarding fee waivers or financial liability.

Recommendation

Judicial Council staff recommend that the Judicial Council, effective March 14, 2022, revise the following Judicial Council forms to reflect the 2022 increases in the federal poverty guidelines:

- Request to Waive Court Fees (form FW-001) at item 5b;

- Request to Waive Court Fees (Ward or Conservatee) (form FW-001-GC) at item 8b;
- Information Sheet on Waiver of Appellate Court Fees—Supreme Court, Court of Appeal, Appellate Division (form APP-015/FW-015-INFO) at item 1; and
- Financial Declaration—Juvenile Dependency (form JV-132) at item 3.

The revised forms are attached at pages 4–12.

Relevant Previous Council Action

The council last revised these forms on March 15, 2021, to reflect the last change in the federal poverty guidelines.

Analysis/Rationale

Judicial Council forms containing figures based on the federal poverty guidelines need to be revised to reflect the changes in those guidelines recently published by the federal government.

Fee waiver forms

The eligibility of indigent litigants to proceed without paying filing fees or other court costs is determined by California Government Code section 68632. Among other things, section 68632(b) provides that a fee waiver will be granted to litigants whose household monthly income is 125 percent or less of the current poverty guidelines established by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).

The Judicial Council has adopted rules of court and forms for litigants to obtain fee waivers. Three of the forms contain figures based on the monthly poverty guidelines: the tables in item 5b on the general fee waiver application form (form FW-001), in item 8b on the probate fee waiver form (form FW-001-GC), and on page 1 of the appellate court information sheet (form APP-015/FW-015-INFO) provide monthly income figures on which a court may base a decision to grant a fee waiver in accordance with Government Code section 68632.

Juvenile form

The Judicial Council administers a program under Welfare and Institutions Code section 903.47 to collect reimbursement of the cost of court-appointed counsel in dependency proceedings from liable persons found able to pay. Under the statewide standard adopted by the council, a person is presumed to be unable to pay reimbursement if that person's monthly household income is 125 percent or less of the current federal poverty guidelines established by HHS.

Financial Declaration—Juvenile Dependency (form JV-132) contains figures based on the poverty guidelines. The table in item 3 provides monthly income levels below which an individual is presumed to be unable to pay reimbursement for the cost of court-appointed counsel.

Revisions required

The monthly income figures currently on the four forms reflect 125 percent of the 2021 poverty guidelines established by the HHS. The HHS released revised federal poverty guidelines on January 21, 2022.¹ As a result, these items on the Judicial Council forms must be revised to reflect the 2022 federal poverty guideline revisions.

To determine the new monthly income figures for the forms, the federal poverty guidelines must be multiplied by 125 percent and divided by 12.² The new figures are reflected in the revised tables on the attached forms.

Policy implications

Staff monitors revisions to the poverty guidelines and ensures that the forms are revised as necessary and submitted to the council. Revised forms FW-001, FW-001-GC, APP-015/FW-015-INFO, and JV-132 should take effect as soon as possible to ensure that litigants and courts are provided with accurate monthly income guidelines on which a court may base a decision regarding fee waivers or financial liability. This change is necessary because the revised poverty guidelines take effect immediately on release. Once adopted, the revised forms will be distributed to the courts and forms publishers and posted to the California Courts website.

Comments

These proposals were not circulated for public comment because they are noncontroversial, involve technical revisions, and are therefore within the Judicial Council's purview to adopt without circulation. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.22(d)(2).)

Alternatives considered

The alternative to updating the income tables using the 2022 federal poverty guidelines would be not to update them. Staff did not consider this option because of the provisions in Government Code section 68632 and in the Judicial Council standard on financial liability.

Fiscal and Operational Impacts

If a court provides free copies of these forms to parties, it will incur costs to print or duplicate the forms. However, the revisions are required to make the forms consistent with current law.

² See Attachment A for the Computation Sheet. The monthly income figures in the tables on the forms slightly exceed 125 percent of the poverty guidelines because they are rounded up to the nearest cent. The language on the forms reflects this slight excess in stating that the item should be checked if the household income is “less than” the amount in the chart.

This form must be used by a guardian or conservator, or by a petitioner for the appointment of a guardian or conservator, to request a waiver of court fees in the guardianship or conservatorship court proceeding or in any other civil action in which the guardian or conservator represents the interests of the ward or conservatee as a plaintiff or defendant.

If the ward or conservatee (including a proposed ward or conservatee if a petition for appointment of a guardian or conservator has been filed but has not yet been decided by the court) directly receives public benefits or is supported by public benefits received by another for his or her support, is a low-income person, or does not have enough income to pay for his or her household's basic needs and the court fees, you may use this form to ask the court to waive the court fees. The court may order you to answer questions about the finances of the ward or conservatee. If the court waives the fees, the ward or conservatee, his or her estate, or someone with a duty to support the ward or conservatee, may still have to pay later if:

- You cannot give the court proof of the ward's or conservatee's eligibility,
- The ward's or conservatee's financial situation improves during this case, or
- You settle the civil case on behalf of the ward or conservatee for $10,000 or more. The trial court that waives fees will have a lien on any such settlement in the amount of the waived fees and costs. The court may also charge the ward or conservatee, or his or her estate, any collection costs.

INFORMATION SHEET ON WAIVER OF APPELLATE COURT FEES— SUPREME COURT, COURT OF APPEAL, APPELLATE DIVISION

If you file an appeal, a petition for a writ, or a petition for review in a civil case, such as a family law case or a case in which you sued someone or someone sued you, you must generally pay a filing fee to the court. If you are a party other than the party who filed the appeal or the petition, you must also generally pay a fee when you file your first document in a case in the Court of Appeal or Supreme Court. You and the other parties in the case may also have to pay other court fees in these proceedings, such as fees to prepare or get a copy of a clerk's transcript in an appeal. However, if you cannot afford to pay these court fees and costs, you may ask the court to issue an order saying you do not have to pay these fees (this is called "waiving" these fees).

1. Who can get their court fees waived? The court will waive your court fees and costs if:

- You are getting public assistance, such as Medi-Cal, Food Stamps, Supplemental Security Income (not Social Security), State Supplemental Payment, County Relief/General Assistance, In-Home Supportive Services, CalWORKS, Tribal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, or Cash Assistance Program for Aged, Blind, and Disabled.
- You have a low income level. Under the law you are considered a low-income person if the gross monthly income (before deductions for taxes) of your household is less than the amount listed below:

Family Size	Family Income	Family Size	Family Income	Family Size	Family Income
1	$1,415.63	3	$2,398.96	5	$3,382.30
2	$1,907.30	4	$2,890.63	6	$3,873.96

If more than 6 people at home, add $491.67 for each extra person.

- You do not have enough income to pay for your household's basic needs and your court fees.

2. What fees and costs will the court waive? If you qualify for a fee waiver, the Supreme Court, Court of Appeal, or Appellate Division will waive the filing fee for the notice of appeal, a petition for a writ, a petition for review, or the first document filed by a party other than the party who filed the appeal or petition, and any court fee for participating in oral argument by telephone. The trial court will also waive costs related to the clerk's transcript on appeal, the fee for the court to hold in trust the deposit for a reporter's transcript on appeal under rule 8.130(b) or rule 8.834(b) of the California Rules of Court, and the fees for making a transcript or copy of an official electronic recording under rule 8.835. If you are the appellant (the person who is appealing the trial court decision), the fees waived include the deposit required under Government Code section 68926.1 and the costs for preparing and certifying the clerk's transcript and sending the original to the reviewing court and one copy to you. If you are the respondent (a party other than the appellant in a case that is being appealed), the fees waived include the costs for sending you a copy of the clerk's transcript. You can also ask the trial court to waive other necessary court fees and costs.

The court cannot waive the fees for preparing a reporter's transcript in a civil case. A special fund, called the Transcript Reimbursement Fund, may help pay for the transcript. (See www.courtreportersboard.ca.gov/consumers/index.shtml#trf and Business and Professions Code sections 8030.2 and following for more information about this fund.) If you are unable to pay the cost of a reporter's transcript, a record of the oral proceedings can be prepared in other ways, by preparing an agreed statement or, in some circumstances, a statement on appeal or settled statement.

3. How do I ask the court to waive my fees?

- Appeal in Limited Civil Case (civil case in which the amount of money claimed is $25,000 or less). In a limited civil case, if the trial court already issued an order waiving your court fees and that fee waiver has not ended (fee waivers automatically end 60 days after the judgment), the fees and costs identified in item 2 above are already waived; just give the court a copy of your current fee waiver. If you do not already have an order waiving your fees or you had a fee waiver but it has ended, you must complete and file a Request to Waive Court Fees (form FW-001). If you are the appellant (the party who is appealing), you should check both boxes in item 4 on FW-001 and file the completed form with your notice of appeal. If you are the respondent (a party other than the appellant in a case that is being appealed), the completed form should be filed in the court when the fees you are requesting to be waived, such as the fee for the clerk's transcript or telephonic oral argument, are due.

- Writ Proceeding in Limited Civil Case (civil case in which the amount of money claimed is $25,000 or less). If you want the Superior Court to waive the fees in a writ proceeding in a limited civil case, you must complete a Request to Waive Court Fees (form FW-001). In item 4 on FW-001, check the second box. The completed form should be filed with your petition for a writ.
- If You Are a Guardian or Conservator. If you are a guardian or conservator or a petitioner for the appointment of a guardian or conservator, special rules apply to your request for a fee waiver on an appeal from an order in the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding or in a civil action in which you are a party acting on behalf of your ward or conservatee. Complete and submit a Request to Waive Court Fees (Ward or Conservatee) (form FW-001-GC) to request a fee waiver. See California Rules of Court, rule 7.5.
- Appeal in Other Civil Cases. If you want the court to waive fees and costs in an appeal in a civil case other than a limited civil case, such as a family law case or an unlimited civil case (a civil case in which the amount of money claimed is more than $25,000), you must complete a Request to Waive Court Fees (form FW-001). In item 4 on FW-001, check the second box to ask the Court of Appeal to waive the fee for filing the notice of appeal or, if you are a respondent (a party other than the one who filed the appeal), the fee for the first document you file in the Court of Appeal. Check both boxes if you also want the trial court to waive your costs for the clerk's transcript (if the trial court already issued an order waiving your fees and that fee waiver has not ended, you do not need to check the first box; the fees and costs identified in item 2 above are already waived, just give the court a copy of your current fee waiver). If you are the appellant, the completed form should be submitted with your notice of appeal (if you check both boxes in item 4, the court may ask for two signed copies of this form). If you are the respondent, the completed form should be submitted at the time the fee you are asking the court to waive is due. For example, file the form in the trial court with your request for a copy of the clerk's transcript if you are asking the court to waive the transcript fee or file the form in the Court of Appeal with the first document you file in that court if you are asking the court to waive the fee for filing that document. To request waiver of a court fee for telephonic oral argument, you should file the completed form in the Court of Appeal when the fee for telephonic oral argument is due.
- Writ Proceeding in Other Civil Cases. If you want the Supreme Court or Court of Appeal to waive the fees and costs in a writ proceeding in a civil case other than a limited civil case, such as a family law case or an unlimited civil case (a civil case in which the amount of money claimed is more than $25,000), you must complete a Request to Waive Court Fees (form FW-001). If you are the petitioner (the party filing the petition), the completed form should be submitted with your petition for a writ in the Supreme Court or Court of Appeal clerk's office. If you are a party other than the petitioner, the completed form should be filed with the first document you file in the Supreme Court or Court of Appeal.
- Petition for Review. If you want to request that the Supreme Court waive the fees in a petition for review proceeding, you must complete a Request to Waive Court Fees (form FW-001) or a Request to Waive Court Fees (Ward or Conservatee) (form FW-001-GC). If you are the petitioner, you should submit the completed form with your petition for review. If you are a party other than the petitioner, the completed form should be filed with the first document you file in the Supreme Court.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION!

- Fill out your request completely and truthfully. When you sign your request for a fee waiver, you are declaring under penalty of perjury that the information you have provided is true and correct.
- The court may ask you for information and evidence. You may be ordered to go to court to answer questions about your ability to pay court fees and costs and to provide proof of eligibility. Any initial fee waiver you are granted may be ended if you do not go to court when asked. You may be ordered to repay amounts that were waived if the court finds you were not eligible for the fee waiver.
- If you receive a fee waiver, you must tell the court if there is a change in your finances. You must tell the court immediately if your finances improve or if you become able to pay court fees or costs during this case (file form FW-010 with the court). You may be ordered to repay any amounts that were waived after your eligibility ended. If the trial court waived your fees and costs and you settle your case for $10,000 or more, the trial court will have a lien on the settlement in the amount of the waived fees.
- The fee waiver ends. The fee waiver expires 60 days after the judgment, dismissal, or other final disposition of the case or when the court finds that you are not eligible for a fee waiver.
