Title
Judicial Workload Assessment | 2022 Update of the Judicial Needs Assessment

Summary

The Need for New Judgeships in the Superior Courts: 2022 Update of the Judicial Needs Assessment, a report to the Legislature required by Government Code section 69614(c)(1), shows that 98 new judicial officers are needed based on workload. This analysis is based on judicial caseweights that were established in 2019. The mandated report also includes information about the conversion of additional subordinate judicial officers to fulfill the reporting requirement of Government Code section 69614(c)(3).
