Title

Rules and Forms | Opportunities for Settlement Before Trial in Unlawful Detainer Cases (Action Required)

Summary

The Civil and Small Claims Advisory Committee recommends a new rule of court and a new form for optional use in unlawful detainer cases to promote settlement opportunities using alternative dispute resolution processes. The new rule states a policy favoring at least one opportunity for participation in some form of pretrial dispute resolution and would allow a court to shorten the existing deadline for submitting a mandatory settlement conference statement. The new form allows parties to submit to the court a settlement agreement and ask for either an order without judgment or a stipulated judgment. The new rule and optional form are intended to increase settlement opportunities in eviction cases and to promote consistency throughout the state.

Recommendation

The Civil and Small Claims Advisory Committee recommends that the Judicial Council, effective January 1, 2024:

1. Adopt California Rules of Court, rule 3.2005, to promote opportunities for settlement before trial in unlawful detainer cases; and
2. Approve Eviction Case (Unlawful Detainer) Stipulation (form UD-155) to identify elements common to settlement agreements in eviction cases, and to provide a road map to help the parties, neutrals, and courts memorialize terms and conditions of performance of an agreement to resolve a case before trial.
