Title

Rules and Forms | Criminal Law: New Postconviction Retail Crime Restraining Order (Action Required)

Summary

Penal Code section 490.8, effective January 1, 2025, allows a court to prohibit a defendant convicted of specified offenses from entering the premises of a protected retail establishment for up to two years. To implement this new statute, the Criminal Law Advisory Committee recommends a new retail crime restraining order for court use.

Recommendation

The Criminal Law Advisory Committee recommends that the Judicial Council, effective July 1, 2025, adopt Retail Crime Restraining Order--Criminal (form CR-164).
