Title

Rules and Forms | Civil Practice and Procedure: Termination of Complex Coordination Proceedings and Actions (Action Required)

Summary

The Civil and Small Claims Advisory Committee proposes amending California Rules of Court, rule 3.545 and adopting rule 3.546 to adjust court procedures for coordinated actions and coordination proceedings. The recommended rule amendment and new rule aim to address concerns that the existing rules on these matters are overly burdensome for courts and do not contain a process to terminate coordination proceedings.

Recommendation

The Civil and Small Claims Advisory Committee recommends that the Judicial Council, effective July 1, 2025:

1. Adopt California Rules of Court, rule 3.546 to specify procedures for terminating coordination proceedings; and
2. Amend California Rules of Court, rule 3.545 to modify the procedures courts must follow when terminating coordinated actions.
